

TOKIO SAYS FAREWELL TO JAPANESE TROOPS OF THE SIBERIAN EXPEDITION LEAVING THE CAPITAL FOR THE EMBARKATION PORT AND VLADIVOSTOK.

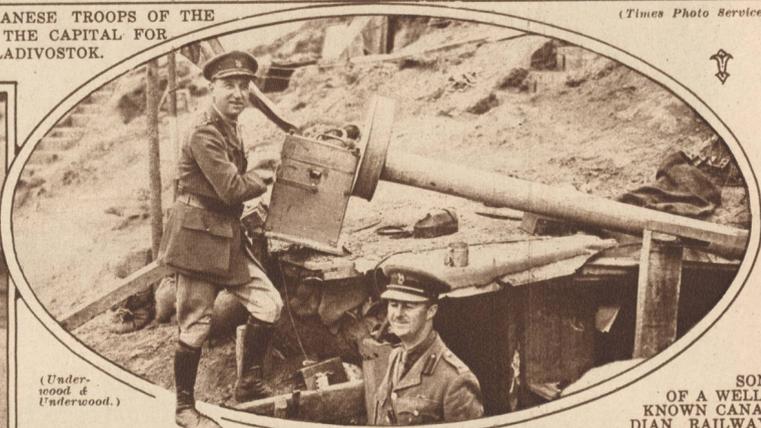

(Times Photo Service.)

JAPANESE SURGEONS AND RED CROSS NURSES Grouped About the United States Ambassador to Japan, Roland S. Morris, and Mrs. Morris, Just Before Leaving Tokio for Vladivostok.

GENERAL KIKUZO OTANI, Commander in Chief of the Entire American and Allied Military Expedition Against the Bolsheviks in Siberia.

(Underwood & Underwood.)

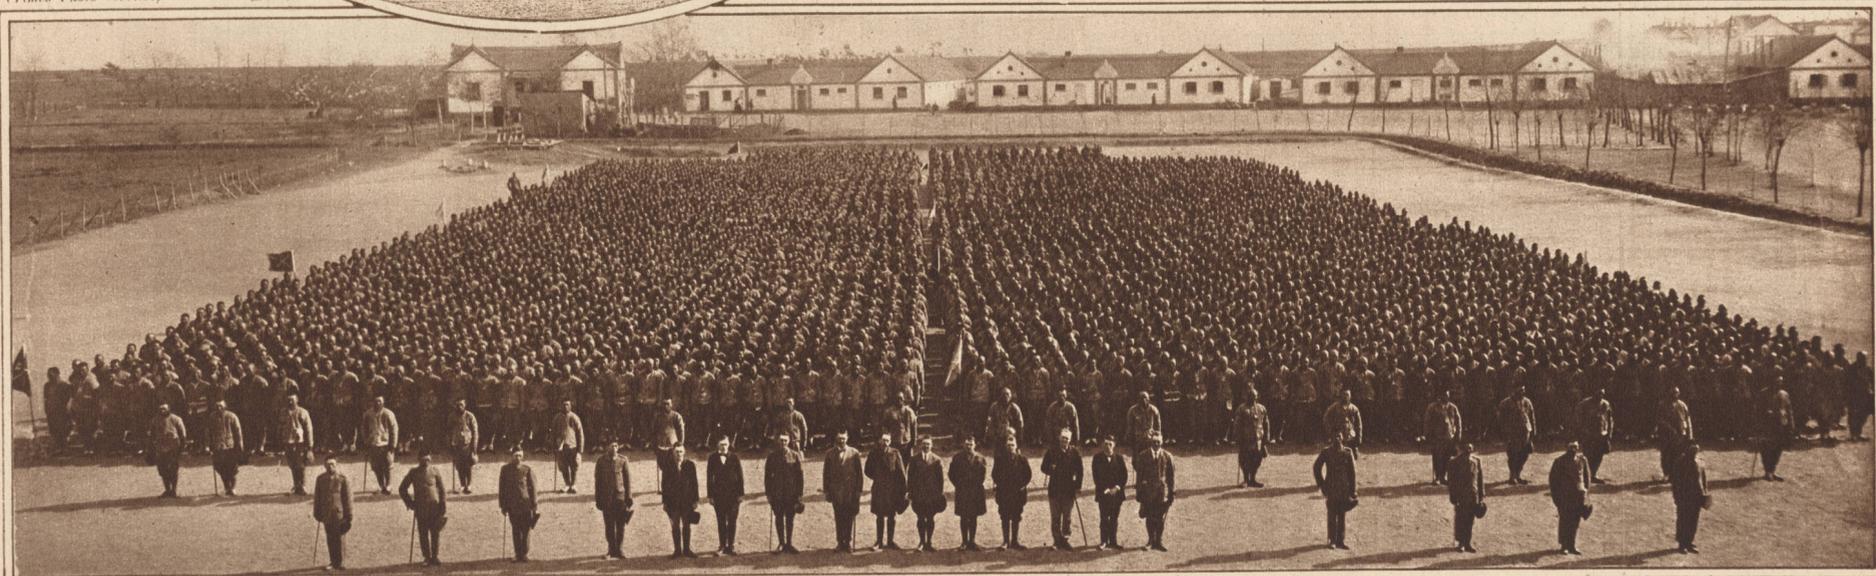

SON OF A WELL-KNOWN CANADIAN RAILWAY OFFICIAL OPERATING A CAPTURED GERMAN PUMP FOR REMOVING VITIATED AIR FROM DUGOUTS.

HEAD OF THE COLUMN OF THE JAPANESE SIBERIAN EXPEDITION LEAVING THE TOKIO HEADQUARTERS BOUND FOR VLADIVOSTOK. (Times Photo Service.)

CHINESE COOLIES BOUND FOR ENGLAND Boarding a Ship, at Tsing-tao, So Far 150,000 of These War Laborers Having Been Transported and Employed by the British Government, and 50,000 by the French Government.

CHINESE COOLIES MOBILIZED AT TSING-TAO, CHINA, FOR TRANSPORTATION TO ENGLAND AND FRANCE, WHERE THEY ARE TO RELEASE, FOR THE FIGHTING, MEN NOW USED IN NECESSARY WAR WORK BEHIND THE LINES. (Photos Underwood & Underwood.)