

GREAT HORDS OF GERMAN PRISONERS, CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH IN THE AUGUST OFFENSIVE ON THE WESTERN FRONT, GOING TO THE REAR UNDER BRITISH CAVALRY GUARD.
(Photos International Film Service.)

GERMAN PRISONERS CAPTURED BY THE FRENCH ON THE SOMME, BRINGING IN THEIR OWN WOUNDED ON STRETCHERS CUSHIONED BY WHEAT TAKEN FROM THE HARVEST FIELDS.

PARIS POLICEMEN NOW WEAR THE "TIN HATS" AGAINST AIR RAIDS.
This Gendarme Has Been a French Soldier, and Has Won the Military Medal and the War Cross.
(International Film Service.)

GERMAN PRISONERS, WHO HID IN A CELLAR WHILE A BRITISH TEMPEST SWEEPED OVER THEM, EMERGING TO SURRENDER TO THE FIRST SOLDIER THEY MIGHT FIND.
(Photos © Underwood & Underwood.)

KING GEORGE V., On His Recent Visit to the British Front, Decorating an American Soldier for Valor While Fighting Shoulder to Shoulder with the British.

FRENCH PRIEST, Who Is a Corporal and Stretcher Bearer, on the French Reoccupation of Breny, on the Aisne, Finds a German Case, Packed and Addressed to Berlin, Containing Communion Cups, Altar Robe, Chalice, and Monstrance.

CANADIANS, JUST WOUNDED IN ACTION, HAVING THEIR AFTERNOON TEA BESIDE A Y. M. C. A. REED HUT NEAR A CANADIAN FIELD DRESSING STATION.