

BRITISH TOMMIES IN ITALY USING THE TOPS OF OLD MOTOR LORRIES AS BILLETS. They Are Waterproof and Make Excellent Shelters.
(Photos © Underwood & Underwood.)

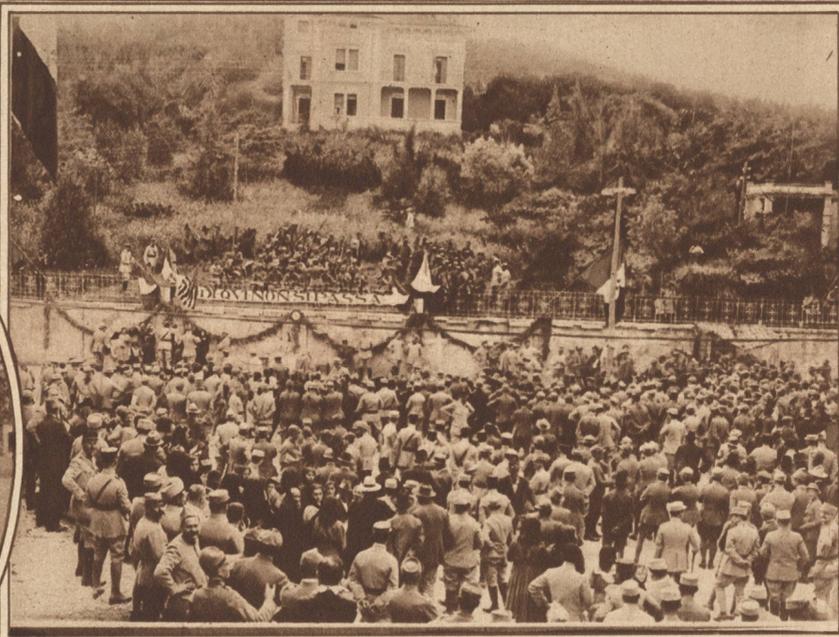

FRENCH CAVALRY, TO BE USED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE BRITISH TANKS IN PURSUIT OF THE GERMANS, ACCUSTOMING THEIR HORSES TO THE OPERATION OF TANKS IN THEIR MIDST.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE NEW GERMAN ANTI-TANK RIFLE, Which Carries a Steel-Piercing Projectile Five Inches Long, and is Operated from a Swivel.
(International Film Service.)

GENERAL ESTIENNE, Commander of the French Artillery Tank Corps on the Western Front.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

FRENCH, BRITISH, AND ITALIANS CELEBRATING "BASTILE DAY" BEHIND THE ITALIAN LINES.
(Western Newspaper Union.)

A GREAT BATTERY OF FRENCH RENAULT OR BABY "CHARIOTS OF ASSAULT," Which Have Played Such a Conspicuous Part in all Recent French Offensives.

GENERAL MANGIN DECORATING THE CREWS OF FRENCH TANKS IN RECOGNITION OF THEIR VICTORIOUS ATTACKS OF JULY 18, 19, AND 20.

CANADIANS ON THE WESTERN FRONT DIGGING IN WHILE WAITING FOR THE NEXT WAVE TO PASS FORWARD OVER THEM. The British Whippet Tank Is Keeping Up with the Crest of the Wave.