

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH, TAKEN FROM A MILITARY AIRPLANE AT LOW ALTITUDE, OF FRENCH INFANTRYMEN ON THE WESTERN FRONT IN INDIVIDUAL HOLES DUG, EACH MAN FOR HIMSELF, ON RUSHING FORWARD TOWARD THE GERMAN LINES.
So Far as Known, This Is the First Photograph Showing the Individual Method of Intrenchment to Be Allowed to Reach This Country. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

A FRENCH FIRST LINE, RUSHING FORWARD, HAS OCCUPIED A DITCH BEFORE FERE-EN-TARDENOIS Running Parallel With a Highway on Which a German Ammunition Wagon, in Retreat, Has Been Destroyed by Shellfire. This Photograph Was Also Taken from a Low-flying Military Airplane. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE HISTORIC SILVER VASE OF ST. CHREME, FROM THE SOISSONS CATHEDRAL, Which Some German Vainly Tried to Hammer Flat So That It Could Be Slipped Into His Pack. (French Pictorial Service.)

CANDLESTICKS AND OTHER ALTAR FURNISHINGS Collected by Germans from French Churches, and Wrapped in an Altar Cloth Preparatory to Shipment to Germany, Left Behind by the Vandals in Their Flight Before the Canadians. (© Western Newspaper Union.)

GERMAN 77 MM. GUNS, ABANDONED UNDER FRANCO-AMERICAN PRESSURE, IMMEDIATELY TURNED ON THEIR FLEEING OWNERS BY THE ADVANCING FRENCH. (International Film Service.)

PART OF THE VAST WAR MATERIAL, TAKEN BY THE FRENCH AND AMERICANS FROM GENERAL VON BOEHN'S ARMY, WHICH HAS BEEN ASSEMBLED AT VILLERS-COTTERETS. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

(Wyndham Press Service.)

A GROUP OF FRENCH GIRL WAR WORKERS,

Members of One of the Sports Clubs Recently Organized to Keep the Womanhood of France in the Pink of Condition, Learning to Row Under the Instructions of a French Sailor Assigned to This Duty by the French Ministry of Marine.