

GERMAN FIELDPIECE OF HIGH VELOCITY, GREAT RANGE, AND UNUSUALLY LONG BARREL, CAPTURED, PRACTICALLY UNDAMAGED, BY THE CANADIANS ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

(© Western Newspaper Union.)

AUSTRIAN MORTAR CAPTURED BY THE FRENCH ON THE WESTERN FRONT, NOW SHOWN AS A TROPHY AT THE INVALIDES, PARIS, AND SOON TO BE BROUGHT TO THE UNITED STATES FOR EXHIBITION.

(International Film Service.)

BRITISH STRETCHER BEARERS, DURING THE RECENT OFFENSIVE ON THE FLANDERS FRONT, REMOVING WOUNDED FROM THE BATTLEFIELD TO DRESSING STATIONS. A Tired Tommy Can Be Seen Asleep in the Foreground Trench. (© Western Newspaper Union.)

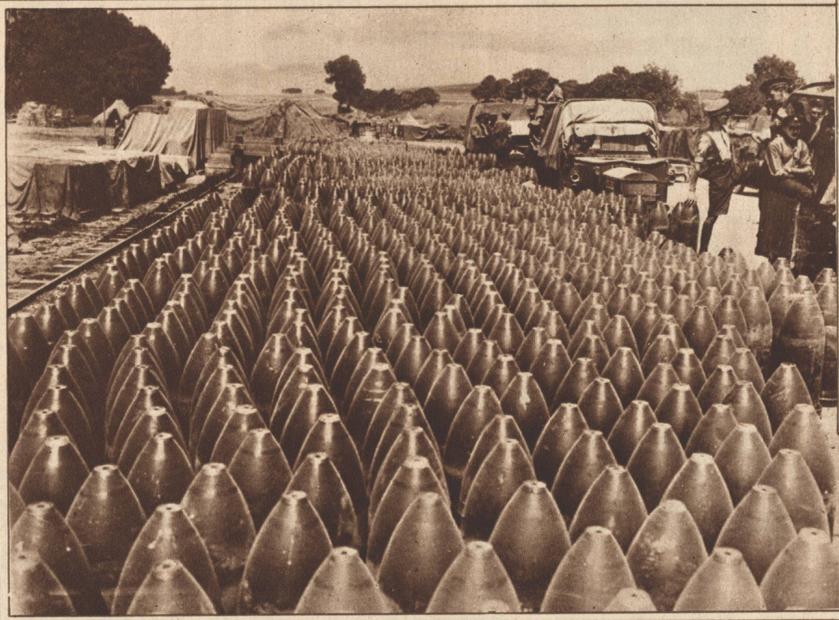

"JOHNNY" EVERS AND "HANK" GOWDY, Both Formerly of the Boston Braves When the Bostonians Held the World's Championship, in Paris, Evers as a Knights of Columbus Secretary, and Gowdy, First Professional Baseball Player to Volunteer in the Army, as an American Artilleryman.

(International Film Service.)

FRENCH OFFICER OF THE ALPINE CHASSEURS PLAYING THE "SIDIBRAHIM OF THE CHASSEURS," A FRENCH AIR, to "Purify" an Organ Recaptured from the Germans, Who Stole It from the House of a Priest on the Oise.

(International Film Service.)

"PILLS FOR THE HUNS," According to the Description of this Picture, taken Somewhere on the Western Front, as Passed by the British Military Censor. (© Western Newspaper Union.)

KING GEORGE V, on His Recent Visit to the British Western Front in France, Receiving President Poincaré of the French Republic on the Steps of the British Great Headquarters.

(Underwood & Underwood.)

WOUNDED JOCKS LOADING THEMSELVES INTO LIGHT RAILWAY CARS Immediately Behind the British Firing Lines on the Western Front for Transportation to Permanent Hospitals. (© Western Newspaper Union.)

THE NORMA, Formerly the Pleasure Yacht of Vincent Astor of New York, and Now a Submarine Chaser in French Waters, Taking on Supplies at Bordeaux, with German Prisoners as Stevedores.