

AMERICANS IN LORRAINE, VICTORS IN THE BATTLE OF THE ST. MIHEL SALIENT, WITNESSING ONE OF THE DAILY BOXING MATCHES BETWEEN TWO OF THEIR NUMBER.

One of the Many Means by Which American Troops in France Keep in the Pink of Fighting Condition.
(Photos International Film Service.)

THE ELEVENTH CENTURY CHATEAU OF CARCASSONNE, USED AS A PRISON FOR PARTICULARLY MALICIOUS AND DANGEROUS GERMAN PRISONERS.

AMERICANS ON REST LEAVE VISITING THE STATUE OF VERINGETORIX, WHICH CROWNS THE MOUNTAIN OVERLOOKING THE ANCIENT CITY OF CARCASSONNE.

"DADDY" NOONAN, a "K. C." Secretary, Told His Little Daughter to Write Him a "Long" Letter When He Reached France. This Is What She Wrote.

ROBERT FRAZER AS "BEN HUR" in the Forthcoming Presentation of the Spectacle at the Lexington Theatre.
(White.)

GEORGE F. BAKER, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank of New York, with His Son, George F. Baker, Jr., Arriving at the Piping Rock Golf Links on "Gasless Sunday" in His Grandchildren's Pony Trap.
(Edwin Levick.)

DE WOLF HOPPER, IN "EVERYTHING," AT THE HIPPODROME.
(Abbe.)