

BRITISH GUARDSMAN GIVING A WOUNDED GERMAN PRISONER WATER FROM HIS OWN CANTEEN. This Man's Injuries Were Also Dressed at a British First-Aid Field Station. (Photos International Film Service.)

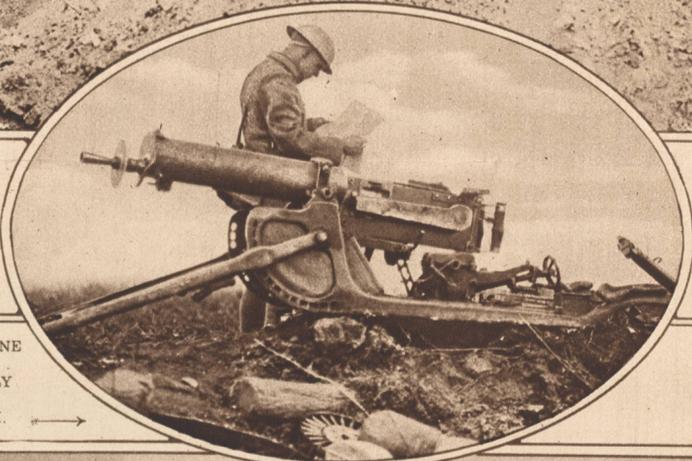

BRITISH TANK COMMANDER, FAR AFIELD IN ATTACK, REPORTING TO HIS HEADQUARTERS BY CARRIER PIGEON.

BRITISH OFFICER ON THE WESTERN FRONT TAKING COVER BEHIND THE RUINS OF A BUILDING FROM FLYING PIECES OF SHRAPNEL EXPLODING NEAR BY.

GERMAN SOLDIERS HERE HAVE THE EXPERIENCE OF RE-CROSSING THE FAMOUS HINDENBURG LINE AS PRISONERS OF WAR, AND BEARING ON THEIR SHOULDERS A WOUNDED BUT VICTORIOUS CANADIAN. (Underwood & Underwood.)

NEW TYPE OF GERMAN MACHINE GUN AMONG THOSE RECENTLY CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH.

CANADIANS, IN OPEN FORMATION, ADVANCING IN A HEAVY RAINSTORM ON REMY, WHICH THEY CAPTURED WITHIN A FEW HOURS AFTER THIS PHOTOGRAPH WAS TAKEN. (Underwood & Underwood.)

THE HUGE GERMAN ANTI-TANK RIFLE MOUNTED ON A SWIVEL ATTACHED TO ONE OF THE CROSS-TIES OF A RAILROAD DESTROYED BY THEM IN THEIR SEPTEMBER RETREAT.

CANADIAN, SO WOUNDED AS TO BE UNABLE TO LIE ON A STRETCHER, IS BROUGHT BACK INTO THE CANADIAN LINES IN A GERMAN WATERPROOF SHEET SWUNG FROM THE SHOULDERS OF GERMAN PRISONERS. (Underwood & Underwood.)