

VIEW OF THE RECENT AMERICAN Y. M. C. A. FETE IN THE GARDEN OF THE TUILERIES, PARIS, DURING THE SINGING OF AN AMERICAN WAR SONG.
(Central News Service.)

MR. AND MRS. OTIS SKINNER, Liberty Loan Speakers from the Liberty Theatre Stage in Front of the New York Public Library.
(Paul Thompson.)

PRESIDENT POINCARÉ OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC REVIEWING ITALIAN SOLDIERS, FIGHTING ON THE FRENCH FRONT, ON WHOM HE HAD JUST CONFERRED FRENCH DECORATIONS.
(Central News Service.)

THE RT. HON. SIR ERIC GEDDES, First Lord of the British Admiralty, with Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, on the Grounds of Sir Eric's Washington Home While in This Country.
(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

LIEUT. HERBERT W. SEIGH, U. S. A., Eightieth Division, France, to Whom Four Decorations Have Been Awarded, as Follows: On Oct. 23, 1917; April 23, 26, 26, 1918.
(© Com. on Public Information.)

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH OF BRITISH SOLDIERS HAVING THEIR WOUNDS DRESSED BY CAPTURED GERMAN SURGEONS.
(© International Film Service.)

TOMMY DEMONSTRATING A DEVICE USED BY THE GERMANS FOR GENERATING ELECTRICITY TO OPERATE THEIR WIRELESS APPARATUS IN THE TRENCHES, AND RECENTLY CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH.
(International Film Service.)

MEN OF COMPANY F, SIXTH ENGINEERS, THIRD DIVISION, U. S. A., CONSTRUCTING A PONTOON BRIDGE ACROSS THE MARNE, USING BOATS LEFT BEHIND BY THE GERMANS IN THEIR FLIGHT.
(© Com. on Public Information.)

AMERICAN, FRENCH, BRITISH, SERBIAN AND OTHER OFFICIALS OF THE ALLIES WHO HAVE BEEN CONDUCTING RED CROSS AND SUNDRY WAR RELIEF WORK IN THE VICINITY OF MONASTIR. Seated, Left to Right, Are: Lieut. Col. Gaitch, Lieut. Col. Prevort, Sister Atkinson, Major Frothingham, American Red Cross, Sister Lynn-Jones, and Dr. Haigh. Among Those Standing Are: M. Kortitch, M. Moritch, Mayor Leshnicasevitch, Mons. Azais, Major Papillon, Capt. Provost, Col. Vesnitch, Dr. Shneron, Dr. Lerebom, and Others, Including the Monastir Chief of Police and Other Serbian Officials.