

GERMANS CAPTURED BY THE AMERICANS IN THE GREAT BATTLE OF THE ST. MIHEL SALIENT MARCHING TO THE REAR THROUGH A RECAPTURED FRENCH VILLAGE UNDER THE GUARD OF YANKEE MILITARY POLICE.

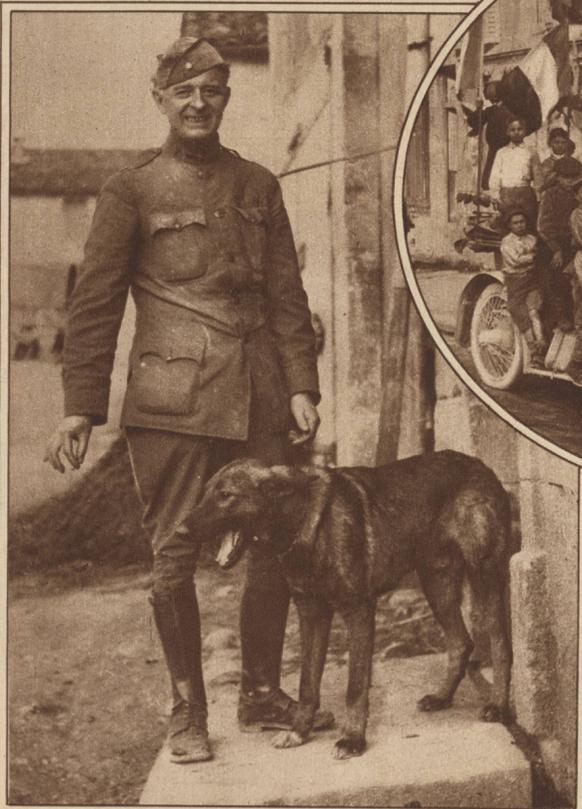

So Far as Known This and Accompanying Photographs Are the First to Reach the United States Showing Results of General Pershing's Great Advance in Lorraine Which Reclaimed Many Square Miles and Many Towns for the French.
(Photos © International Film Service.)

CLOSE-UP VIEW OF GERMAN PRISONERS CAPTURED BY A YANKEE DIVISION AT ST. MIHEL.

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU, French Premier, on His First Visit to Hattonchatel, St. Mihiel Salient, After Its Recapture by the Americans.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MAJOR FRED ADAMS of Bridgeport, Conn., with a German War Dog Which Fell Into His Possession in One of the Battles of the St. Mihiel Sector.

FRENCH CHILDREN OF ST. MIHEL, WITH AUTOMOBILE DECORATED WITH FRENCH FLAGS, READY TO GO OUT TO WELCOME THEIR AMERICAN DELIVERERS.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

AMERICAN GENERAL GOING FORWARD THROUGH THE FRENCH VILLAGE OF HATTONCHATEL AFTER FOUR YEARS IN GERMAN POSSESSION.