

(© International Film Service.)

DE-STROYED
RAILWAY BRIDGE

OVER THE VESLE IN THE
WAKE OF THE FLEEING GERMANS.

A YANK, JUST RETURNED FROM THE FIGHTING AT ST. MIHIEL SALIENT CROWNED WITH A GERMAN TROPHY, PUTTING A KEENER EDGE ON HIS BAYONET FOR FIGHTING YET TO COME.
(© International Film Service.)

AMERICAN SERGEANT WITH A GERMAN MACHINE GUN AND ROUND OF CARTRIDGES CAPTURED BY HIMSELF AT ST. MIHIEL.
(© International Film Service.)

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH OF FRENCH AND AMERICAN TANKS AT ST. MIHIEL MOVING UPON THE GERMAN LINES IN ADVANCE OF THE ALLIED INFANTRY.

MRS. COLLENA JOHNSON, of New York, former wife of Owen Johnson, novelist, first woman to sing for the Y. M. C. A. on the American and French fronts, and has actually sung under fire. She is also the originator of the cape uniform worn by Y. M. C. A. girl workers.

(© International Film Service.)

CANS ARE ON THE ROAD TO ST. MIHIEL.

THEIR TROUBLES IN THEIR OWN KIT BAG, THESE SMILING AMERICANS

VICTORIOUS FRENCH INFANTRY, ASSOCIATED WITH THE AMERICAN FIRST ARMY, ENTERING A VILLAGE ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF ST. MIHIEL.