

Above Them Is One of the Many Similar Electric Signs Which Greeted President Wilson on His Arrival in Paris. The Two Presidents Are Looking Toward the Americans Assembled on the Balcony of the Hotel Crillon.

KING VICTOR EMMANUEL III. AND PRESIDENT POINCARÉ PASSING THROUGH THE PLACE DE LA CONCORDE ON THE ARRIVAL OF ITALY'S KING IN PARIS.

PRESIDENT WILSON WITH HEAD UNCOVERED IN RESPONSE TO THE CHEERS OF THE CROWDS WHICH FILLED THE PLACE DE LA CONCORDE. The Egyptian Obelisk Appears in the Background.

PRESIDENT WILSON PRESIDING AT A MEETING OF THE UNITED STATES PEACE DELEGATION IN THE CONFERENCE ROOM OF THE UNITED STATES PEACE HEADQUARTERS AT THE HOTEL CRILLON, PARIS.

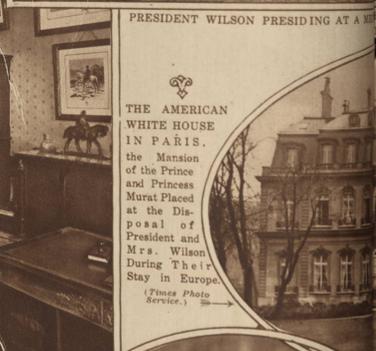

DETACHMENT OF FRENCH LANCERS, RETURNING FROM THE GERMAN BORDER, PASSING THE HOTEL CRILLON, HEADQUARTERS OF THE AMERICAN PEACE DELEGATION.

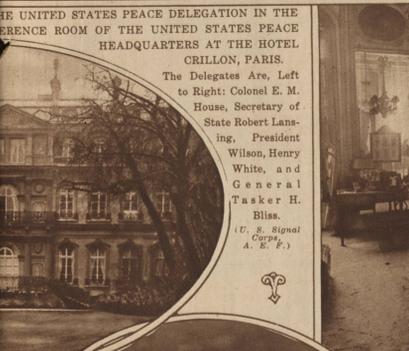

PARIS GIRLS DISTRIBUTING FLOWERS TO POILUS LINING THE BOIS DE BOULOGNE TO AWAIT THE PASSAGE OF PRESIDENT WILSON.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S BEDROOM.

THE AMERICAN WHITE HOUSE IN PARIS. The Mansion of the Prince and Princess Murat Placed at the Disposal of President and Mrs. Wilson During Their Stay in Europe.

The Delegates Are, Left to Right: Colonel E. M. House, Secretary of State Robert Lansing, President Wilson, Henry White, and General Tasker H. Bliss.

MRS. WILSON'S BEDCHAMBER IN THE MURAT MANSION.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S OFFICE AT THE MURAT MANSION.

PRESIDENT WILSON, PRECEDED BY MRS. WILSON, LEAVING THE FRENCH ACADEMY, PARIS, IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE INSTALLATION OF MARSHAL JOFFRE AS AN "IMMORTAL."

MRS. WILSON, Wife of the President, Driving Through the Streets of Paris with Mme. Poincaré, French President.

PRESIDENT WILSON Seated with President Poincaré, Acknowledging the Cheers of Paris Crowds.

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH OF JAPANESE TROOPS IN ACTUAL COMBAT WITH THE APPROACHING SOLDIERS OF THE BOLSHEVIKI, WHO ARE PLAINLY VISIBLE IN THE BACKGROUND.