

THE KING AND QUEEN OF THE BELGIANS, WITH PRINCE LEOPOLD, THE CROWN
PRINCE, PRINCESS MARIE, AND PRINCE CHARLES,

on the Occasion of Their State Entry on Horseback into Brussels, the Belgian Capital, Reviewing the Parade in Their Honor, a Division of Poilus Passing at the Moment This Photograph Was Taken.

(Underwood & Underwood.)

THE BELGIAN KING AND QUEEN,
on Their Recent Stay in Paris, Making a Special Visit to the Belgian Orphans Who Have Been Cared for Throughout the War by Kindly Parisians.

(Photos International Film Service.)

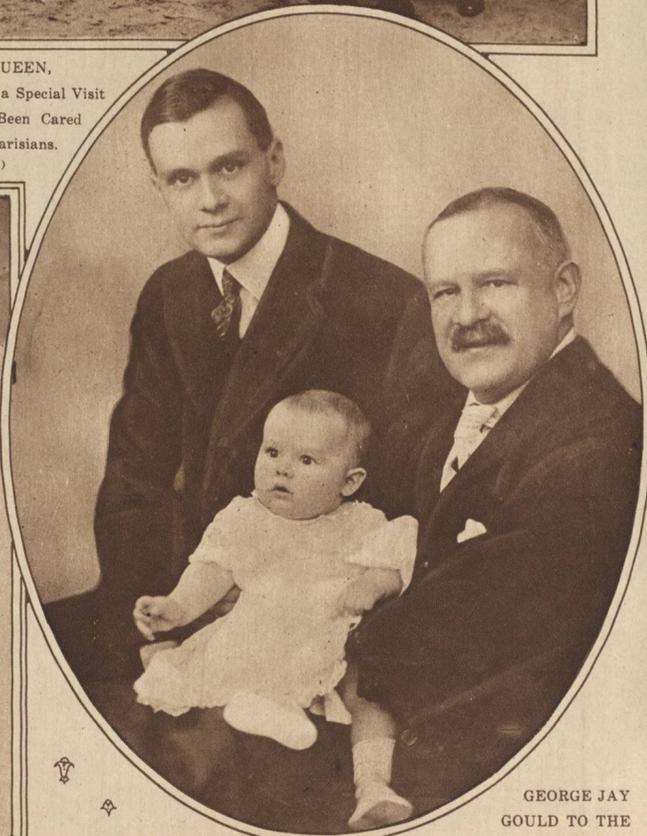

QUEEN
ELIZABETH
OF THE BELGIANS

Driving Through Paris with Mme. Poincaré, Wife of the President of the French Republic.

"PAL" MOORE,

Husky American Tar, Who Recently Defeated "Jimmy" Wilde, Champion Pugilist in the British Navy, Viewing with Pride the Decoration Conferred on Him by Prince Albert, the British King's Sailor Son.

GEORGE JAY GOULD TO THE
THIRD GENERATION.

From a New Photograph, and the First Taken of George Jay Gould III.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

Mid-Winter Fashions on the Paris Boulevards.