

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN IMMEDIATELY AFTER A LIFEBOAT, PLYING BETWEEN THE STRANDED AMERICAN TRANSPORT NORTHERN PACIFIC AND THE BEACH AT FIRE ISLAND, HAD CAPSIZED, Spilling Its Load of Soldiers Into the Sea. Some of the Men Can Be Seen Struggling in the Water, a Sailor Going to the Rescue of One Who Seemed to be in Difficulty.

(© International Film Service.)

MISS MARION HOLLINS AND OTHER LONG ISLAND SOCIETY WOMEN, Who Served Hot Coffee and Sandwiches to Life Guards and Soldiers from the Stranded Transport.

(Central News Service.)

SOLDIERS FROM THE NORTHERN PACIFIC, MANY OF THEM WOUNDED, CLIMBING DOWN DANCING ROPE LADDERS TO LIFEBOATS ALONGSIDE.

(© International Film Service.)

ONE OF THE MANY SEVERELY WOUNDED SOLDIERS LOWERED TO A LIFEBOAT IN A WIRE BASKET.

(© International Film Service.)

ARMY OFFICER GOING ASHORE FROM THE NORTHERN PACIFIC IN A BREECHES BUOY.

(Times Photo Service.)

MRS. CHARLES GORDON-FELLOWES, Formerly Miss Sara Price Collier of New York and Now the Bride of Lieutenant Gordon-Fellowes of the British Navy.

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

A FLEET OF DESTROYERS AND OTHER CRAFT AS NEAR THE NORTHERN PACIFIC AS THEY DARE. In the Bleak Foreground Scene Soldiers Are Trying to Salvage a Wrecked Lifeboat.

(© Kadel & Herbert.)