

THE NEW SIXTY-NINTH REGIMENT OF NEW YORK CITY MARCHING PAST THE CAPITOL AT ALBANY IN THE INAUGURAL PARADE OF GOVERNOR ALFRED E. SMITH.
(Times' Photo Service.)

PANEL INSERT: The Official Reviewers of the Inaugural Parade, Including, in the Centre: Mrs. Katharine Smith, Mother of the Governor; Mrs. Alfred E. Smith, the Governor's Wife; Their Two Sons, Walter and Arthur; Governor Smith, and the Retiring Governor, Charles S. Whitman.
(Times Photo Service.)

YVONNE GALL,
New French Soprano
of the Chicago Opera Company, Soon to Begin Its Season in
New York.
(Matsene.)

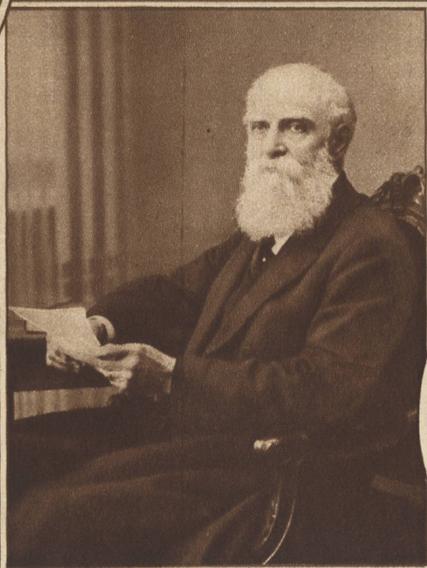

GOVERNOR SMITH WITH HIS LITTLE SON WALTER, FORMER GOVERNOR WHITMAN, and Members of the New Governor's Staff, Leaving the Executive Mansion to Review the Inaugural Parade.
(© International Film Service.)

CAESAR, an Important Member of the Governor's Family; a New Friend, Vincent Glynn of Albany, and Two Old Playfellows, Walter and Arthur Smith, Sons of the Governor. Caesar Promises to Furnish Much Copy in Dull Times for the Capitol Hill Reporters.
(Times Photo Service.)

GERMAN CHILDREN, CLUSTERING ABOUT THE FIELD KITCHENS OF HOME-COMING GERMAN TROOPS, BEG FOR FOOD.
(International Film Service.)

NICHOLAS TCHAIKOVSKY, President of the Government of the Northern Region of Russia Centring About Archangel. From a New Photograph.

MRS. MARY M. LILLY, First Woman Member of the State Assembly from New York City, Standing in Front of the Capitol with Her Son, Captain Joseph Lilly, the Two Flanked, Left to Right, Respectively, by Policewomen, Captain Elizabeth Bell and Major B. W. Welzmilller.
(Times Photo Service.)

WOUNDED AMERICAN SOLDIERS, CONVALESCENT IN LONDON, Find a Never-Failing Source of Entertainment in Feeding the Pigeons on the Flags in Front of St. Paul's Cathedral.
(© Western Newspaper Union.)