

THE GERMAN "FLYING TANK" AT LAST, WITH FUSELAGE OF HARDEST STEEL AND WINGS OF CORRUGATED IRON.

In Semi-Wrecked Condition, It Is Shown in Belgium, Near the German Border, Under the Guard of a British Soldier, While, in the Foreground, Is Passing an Automobile Flying a Flag of Truce and Bearing German Officers on the Back Track.

BRITISH LANCERS CROSSING THE HOHENZOLLERN BRIDGE OVER THE RHINE AT COLOGNE.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

A DETAILED VIEW OF THE FAMOUS GERMAN "FLYING TANK,"

Canadian Soldiers Closely Inspecting It. So Far as Known These Are the First Views of the All-Steel German Airplane to be Received in This Country.
(Photos Underwood & Underwood.)

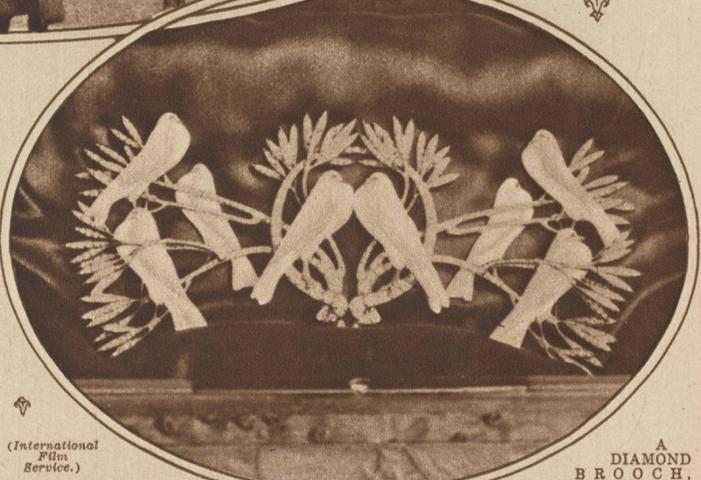

SCOTTISH PIPERS PIPING THEIR WAY THROUGH THE STREETS OF COLOGNE, WONDER-STROCK GERMAN CHILDREN FORMING THEIR ESCORT.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

VICTOR EMMANUEL III., KING OF ITALY, THE ITALIAN CROWN PRINCE, AND PRESIDENT POINCARÉ, Appearing on the Balcony of the Hotel de Ville in Response to the Acclaim of Parisians Gathered in the Plaza Below.
(International Film Service.)

AMERICAN FLAG, Embroidered in Silk by Mme. Jeanne Labric, Presented to President Wilson by the French Women's Unions. Chief Features of This Flag Are That It Has No Reverse Side and That No Cloth of Any Kind Was Used in Making It.
(International Film Service.)

A DIAMOND BROOCH, ADORNED WITH ENAMELED PEACE DOVES, PRESENTED TO MRS. WOODROW WILSON BY THE CITY OF PARIS at the Hotel de Ville When on President Wilson Was Conferred the Citizenship of Paris.
(International Film Service.)

CANADIAN SOLDIERS CROSSING THE GERMAN BORDER FROM BELGIUM, THE INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY POST BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES APPEARING ON THE LEFT.