

THE FUNERAL CORTEGE OF MAJOR GEN. J. FRANKLIN BELL LEAVING GOVERNORS ISLAND, PAST THE GUARD OF HONOR, ON ITS WAY TO MANHATTAN and the Train for Washington, Where the Burial Took Place in Arlington Cemetery, the Skyline of Manhattan Appearing in the Background.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GOVERNOR ALFRED E. SMITH,

Conducting the State's Business in the Governor's Room, New York City Hall, the First Governor in Half a Century to Use This Room for Making Himself More Accessible to People with State Business. The Desk on Which He Leans Was Formerly That of John Quincy Adams.

(Times Photo Service.)

MME. SLAVKO GROITCH, Wife of the New Serbian Minister to the United States, Who Has Already Done Much Work in the United States in Behalf of Her Stricken Country.

(© Chlmedinst, Underwood & Underwood.)

AMERICANS DECORATED BY THE BRITISH KING: LIEUTENANTS NORTHCOTT AND McHENRY OF THE AMERICAN ARMY Leaving Buckingham Palace After Receiving the British Military Cross from King George V.

(Underwood & Underwood.)

A LIBERATED FRENCH FAMILY, ALL MEMBERS PRESENT OR ACCOUNTED FOR, CLUSTERING ABOUT A FRIENDLY YANKEE CHAPLAIN, Who Is Manifesting Keen Interest in a Youngster's Wooden Shoe.

(© Committee on Public Information, from U. & U.)

THREE FAMOUS PATHFINDERS IN THE TRACKLESS ARCTIC TO ALL OF WHOM HAS BEEN AWARDED THE HUBBARD GOLD MEDAL BY THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY.

They Are, Left to Right: Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary, Discoverer of the North Pole; Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Discoverer of New Land in the Arctic, and Major Gen. A. W. Greely, Arctic Explorer and Leader of the Greely Expedition of Nearly Forty Years Ago, When All of Its Members Except Seven Perished at Cape Sabine.

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

ROSA RAISA AS TOSCA, in the Chicago Opera Company's Repertoire, to be Sung in Its New York Season Beginning Next Week.

(Matsene.)

SYLVIA TELL, Premiere Danseuse of the Chicago Opera Company.

(Shaw.)

ELIZABETH BRICE, Soon to Appear in "The Overseas Review," at the Vanderbilt Theatre, After Five Months in France, Spent in Entertaining American Soldiers.

(Abbe.)