

THE FLOWER-COVERED GRAVE OF COLONEL THEODORE ROOSEVELT
Crowning the Crest of a Hill in Young's Memorial Cemetery, Oyster Bay, Long Island, with the Ice-Fringed Waters of Long Island Sound at Its Base. Across the Cove Lies Sagamore Hill, the Roosevelt Home. (Times Photo Service.)

AMERICAN SOLDIERS ON LEAVE IN PARIS
Flock to the Branches of Trees to Get a Glimpse of Their Visiting Commander in Chief, Poilus Lining the Street to Await the Passage of President Wilson. (© International Film Service.)

UBIQUITOUS
PARIS GAMINS PERCHED IN
TREETOPS NEAR THE ARC
DE TRIOMPHE, THE BETTER TO SEE THE
PRESIDENT AND MRS.
WILSON OUT FOR A
DRIVE. (© Kadel & Herbert.)

A TYPICAL
SCENE IN PARIS
WHEN THE PRESIDENT
AND MRS. WILSON TAKE A DRIVE:
Young Girls in Alsatian Costume Awaiting in the Rue de Berri to Offer Flowers to the Wife of the American President. (International Film Service.)

AMERICA'S
"MYSTERY" SCHOONER,
THE CHARLES WHITTE-MORE,

Anything but the Peaceful Cargo Vessel She Appears, Having Been Sent Out Heavily Armed and Fully Manned to Decoy German Submarines Along the American Coast. (Times Photo Service.)

MR. AND MRS. ENRICO
CARUSO

Making Purchases in the Red Cross Fifth Avenue Shop, Conducted Under the Direction of Miss Helen C. Frick for the Benefit of Wounded American Soldiers. (© International Film Service.)

THE MONUMENT IN SHANGHAI TO THE GERMAN CRUISER ILTIS,
Which Foundered in the China Sea in 1898, Torn Down by the Angry Chinese on Learning How Brutally Returning Allied Prisoners Were Treated by the Germans. (Times Photo Service.)