ELIZABETH
RISDEN, IN
"DEAR BRUTUS,"
AT THE EMPIRE THEATRE.
(Abbe.)

CHANG-CHIO OF SUNNYFIELDS FARM, YAN SE, AND HU SEN,
All Owned by Mrs. Michael Van Beuren, Daughter of the Late John D. Archbold, and All Prize Winners in the Tenth Annual Show of the Pekingese Club of America, Chang-Chio Being Adjudged the Best Animal Benched in a Field of 250 Competitors.
(Times Photo Service.)

(Paul Thompson.)

MME. CATHERINE BRESHKOVSKAYA,
"Grandmother of the Russian Revolution," Here to Tell About Conditions in Her Sorely Tried Country.
(International Film Service.)

MISSES BEATRICE SWANSON AND CLAUDIA WINDSOR,
Among the Contestants for the Golden Apple Awarded to the Most Beautiful Woman at the Artists' Chu Chin Chow Ball, Hotel des Artists.
(Photos © Underwood & Underwood. Arnold Genthe.)

MISS DOONYA HOLLAND, with Her Champion Prize Winning Wee-Choo of High Degree in This Year's Pekingese Show, Held for the Fatherless Children of France.

BILLIE BURKE AND HER LITTLE DAUGHTER, PATRICIA,
ON THE SANDS AT PALM BEACH.
(© International Film Service.)

SECRETARY OF WAR NEWTON D. BAKER AND THE ONLY CIVILIANS TO WHOM HAS BEEN AWARDED THE AMERICAN DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL.
They Are: S. M. Felton, Director General of Military Railroads, and R. J. Thorne, Assistant to the Acting Quartermaster General.
(© Western Newspaper Union.)