

VAST THRONG OF MILANESE ASSEMBLED IN FRONT OF THE PALACE TO GREET THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON,

Who Appeared on a Balcony of the Palace, Shown in the Left Background. A Corner of the Famous Cathedral of Milan Can Be Seen on the Right.

(Times Photo Service.)

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, ON HIS ARRIVAL IN MILAN, RISES IN HIS CARRIAGE IN RESPONSE TO THE ACCLAIM OF THE ITALIANS.

(Times Photo Service.)

PRESIDENT WILSON DRIVING THROUGH THE STREETS OF MILAN, ACCOMPANIED BY THE MAYOR OF THE CITY.

(Times Photo Service.)

PARISIAN ANGLER FLYING HIS TRADE IN A STREET OF THE CITY THROUGH WHICH RUSH THE TORRENTS OF THE OVERFLOWING SEINE.

(Times Photo Service.)

Left to Right, Are: Captain Edward W. Rickenbacker, Mr. Driggs, a Writer, and Captain James Meissner of Brooklyn.

(International Film Service.)

THE NEW "WATCH ON THE RHINE": MILITARY POLICE OF THE "RAINBOW DIVISION"

Receiving Instructions for the Day's Duty Near Coblenz and Opposite the Famous Drachenfels.

(International Film Service.)

