

PRINCESS PATRICIA OF CONNAUGHT, First Cousin of the King of England, Whose Wedding to a British Commander, Commander Alexander Ramsey of the British Navy, Will Take Place in Westminster Abbey This Week. From a New Photograph Just Received in This Country. (© Press Illustrating Service.)

MEN OF THE 50TH COAST ARTILLERY, Chiefly from Rhode Island and Massachusetts, Home Once More, Greeting Friends on the Deck and Funnel of the American Cruiser Charleston. (© International Film Service.)

SERGEANT HOMER WHITELY, Company D, 167th Infantry, Receiving from Colonel Lewis S. Sorley, at Camp Merritt, N. J., the American Distinguished Service Cross, Being the First American Soldier to Receive This Honor on the Home Soil. (Pictorial News Company.)

SECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT LANSING

at His Desk in the Hotel Crillon, Paris Headquarters of the American Peace Delegation.

(United States Signal Corps.)

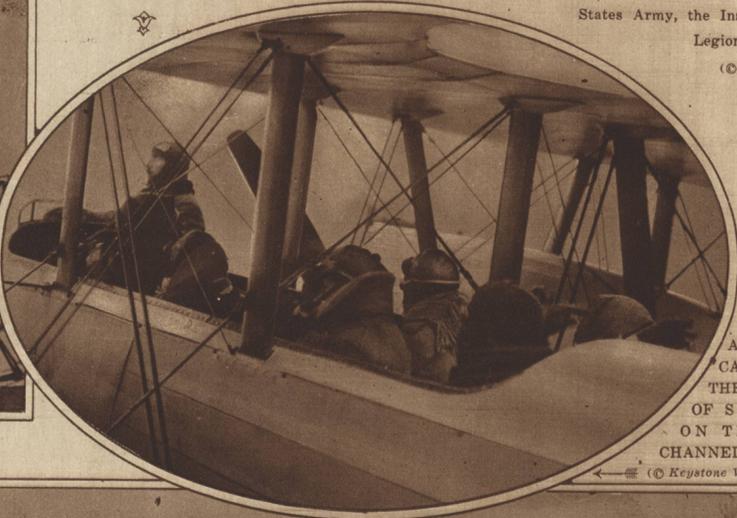

PRESIDENT WILSON, ON ONE OF HIS LAST DAYS IN PARIS, Crossing the Alexander III. Bridge Over the Seine, Two Secret Service Guards Following. (© Keystone View Company.)

SECRETARY OF WAR, NEWTON D. BAKER,

on Behalf of the French Government, Conferring on Major Gen. William C. Gorgas, Formerly Surgeon General of the United States Army, the Insignia of the Legion of Honor.

(© International Film Service.)

PARIS PASSENGERS FOR LONDON IN THEIR SEATS ABOARD THE CAUDRON AT THE INSTANT OF STARTING ON THE CROSS-CHANNEL FLIGHT.

(© Keystone View Company.)

THE LONDON-PARIS AEROBUS, CAUDRON, First Passenger-Carrying Airplane to Make Regular Trips Between the British and French Capitals. (© Press Illustrating Service.)