

JULES VEDRINES, NOTED FRENCH AVIATOR, AND HIS MECHANICIAN, AT THE MOMENT OF STARTING FROM VILLACOUBLAY, A SUBURB OF PARIS, on the Attempted Non-Stop Flight to Rome in Which Both Men Fell to Instant Death After 225 Miles of the 700 Mile Journey Had Been Covered, the Machine, First Built Just Before the Close of the War for Dropping Bombs on Berlin, Collapsing at a Great Height.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

PRINCESS YOLANDE MARGARET OF SAVOY, Eldest Daughter of the King and Queen of Italy.

PRINCESS MAFALDA OF SAVOY,
Second Daughter of the Italian
King and Queen.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

MAYOR OLE HANSON, of Seattle, Who Crushed out Bolshevism in Its First Appearance in His Home City, in the Pitcher's Box at the Opening of the Seattle Baseball Season.
(© International Film Service.)

THE STATUE OF GERMANIA on the United States Custom House,
at the Foot of Broadway,
Changed to That of Belgium,
the Chisel Cutting Away All That Was Teutonic in the Symbolic Figure's Features, and the Shield Words "Kiel" and "William II." Giving Place to the Name of the Plucky Little Kingdom Which Defied Germany and Won. The Unveiling Took Place on Belgian Day of the Victory Loan.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

FORMER SECRETARY OF THE TREAS-URY WILLIAM G.
McADOO AND MRS.
McADOO,
Youngest Daughter of President Wilson, Off for a Canter in California in True Wild West Style.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

American "Ace of Aces," and Major R. W. Schroeder, U. S. A., Unofficial Holder of Made Last Fall Over the Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

NOTABLE FIGURES IN AMERICAN AVIATION.
They Are, Left to Right: Orville Wright, Co-Inventor with His Brother, the Late Wilbur Wright, of the Airplane; Captain Edward Rickenbacker, of the World's Altitude Flying Record of 28,900 Feet.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

PAUL LEBAUDY, FRENCH AVIATOR AND WAR HERO, AND HIS BRIDE, FORMERLY MLE. DE GONDE,
M. Lebaudy Is a Son of the French "Sugar King" and a Brother of the Late Jacques Lebaudy, "Emperor of Sahara."
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT E. TREMAN,
FORMERLY MRS. VERNON CASTLE,
ON THEIR HONEYMOON AT LAKE
PLACID, NEW YORK.
(Fitch.)

MISS HELEN JOHNSTON OF RICHMOND, VA., QUEEN, AND HER MAIDS OF HONOR at the Presentation of the Spirit of Virginia by the Students of Sweet Brier College, Virginia.
(© J. P. Bell & Co.)