

OFFICERS OF THE BRITISH MARINES, ON A VISIT TO FRANCE WITH ADMIRAL LEVESON AT THEIR HEAD, LEAVING RHEIMS CATHEDRAL, Where They Were Shown Over the Shell-Torn Edifice by Cardinal Lucon, Who Is Here Seen in Conversation with the Admiral.
(© Keystone Photo News.)

BRITISH AND FRENCH OFFICERS RESPONDING TO A CALL FOR THREE CHEERS FOR CARDINAL LUCON OF RHEIMS, Who Remained at His Post Throughout the Repeated German Assaults on His Ancient City and Cathedral.
(© Keystone Photo News.)

"IN THE SPRING A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY"—A DAILY MAY SCENE ON THE CHAMPS ELYSEE.
(International Film Service.)

THE BISHOP OF SALONIKI BLESSING THE CORNERSTONE, LAID BY GENERAL FRANCHET D'ESPEREY FOR THE CHAPEL to be Erected at Saloniki to the Memory of French Soldiers Slain in the Battles of the Near East. General D'Esperey Can Be Seen Standing, with Bared Head, Immediately Behind the White-Robed Bishop.
(International Film Service.)

CARDINAL LUCON POINTING OUT TO ADMIRAL LEVESON of the British Navy, and a Brother Officer, the Effect of German Shrapnel on the Walls of Rheims Cathedral.
(© Keystone Photo News.)

ALL ANTWERP HONORING THE MEMORY OF HER TWENTY-THREE MARTYRS AND LEADING CITIZENS, CONDEMNED TO DEATH BY THE GERMAN "BLOOD TRIBUNAL" AND SHOT, the Bodies of the Martyrs Having Been Removed with Military Honors from Fort Endeghem, Where They Were Slain, to the Antwerp Cathedral Where Mgr. Cleykens Conducted a Special Funeral Service, the Final Burial Taking Place in the Schoonselhof Cemetery.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE NEW BANNERS OF A POLISH REGIMENT, ABOUT TO LEAVE WARSAW FOR THE FIGHTING FRONT AGAINST THE BOLSHEVIKI, Are Blessed with Imposing Ceremony on the Steps of the Cathedral in the Presence of the Highest Military and Civil Authorities of Re-Born Poland.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GENERAL HALLER, COMMANDER OF POLAND'S LEGIONNAIRES, About 16,000 of Whom Were Americans of Polish Descent, Who Fought Shoulder to Shoulder with the Allies on French Soil, Welcomed in Warsaw on His Arrival with His Troops From France Across German Territory. With General Haller Are General Henri of the French Army and M. Wajciechowski, Polish Minister of the Interior.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE FUNERAL PROCESSION OF JULES VEDRINES, NOTED FRENCH AVIATOR, Instantly Killed with His Mechanician While on an Attempted Non-Stop Flight from Paris to Rome, Passing Through the Streets of the French Capital.
(© Keystone Photo News.)