

MISS RUTH ST. DENIS,
Noted Barefoot Interpretive Dancer, as Miriam in "The Sister of Moses," Recently Produced by the University of California.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

LIEUTENANT WALDO LYMAN,
OF THE AMERICAN MARINES, AND MISS SELMA SELINGER, SONG LEADER AT THE CALDWELL RIFLE RANGE,
the Tallest and Shortest Competitors in the National Open Marksmanship Contest to be Held on the Range.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

MISS MARY WASHINGTON MOROSINI, of New York, Who Has Displayed Astonishing Marksmanship at the Navy Rifle Range at Caldwell, N. J., Scoring Perfect Bullseyes at 200 Yards with the First Three Shots Ever Fired by Her with a Regular American Army Service Rifle. She Is the Daughter of Count Attilio Morosini and the Countess Morosini, the Former a Noted Pistol and Rifle Shot on Two Continents.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

AMERICAN AIRPLANES PILED IN A LOFTY RIDGE AT COLOMBEY-LES-BELLES, FRANCE, for the "Million-Dollar Bonfire" Now Being Investigated by Congress.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

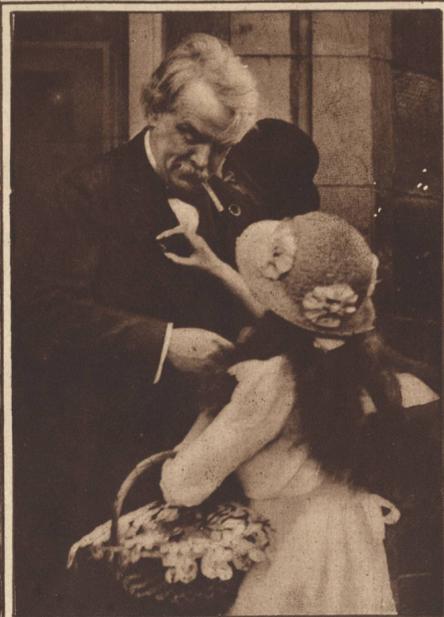

THE "MILLION-DOLLAR BONFIRE" OF AMERICAN ARMY AIRPLANES IN FRANCE, BLAZING MERRILY.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MAYOR GILLEN OF NEWARK, N. J., Personally Selling United States Army Bacon to All Corners of His City, in the Nation-Wide War on the H. C. L.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

BRINGING HOME THE BACON: A Newark Citizen and His Two Sons Returning from Mayor Gillen's Meat Shop with a Generous Portion of Army Meat.
(International Film Service.)

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE, BRITISH PRIME MINISTER, in Unconventional Pose, but Always a Lover of Children and of His Pipe.
(From Times Wide World Photos.)

JOSEPHUS DANIELS, SECRETARY OF THE NAVY, JUST BEFORE STARTING FOR THE WESTERN COAST TO INSPECT THE NEW PACIFIC FLEET, REVIEWING FOR THE LAST TIME THE WASHINGTON YEOMANETTES, ABOUT TO BE DEMOBILIZED.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)