

TRIUMPHANT
ALLIES, IN LONDON
MARCH, ACCLAMATED

LONDON'S INTERNATIONAL VICTORY MARCH AND PEACE PAGEANT PASSING BUCKINGHAM PALACE, WHERE IT WAS REVIEWED BY THE KING AND THE FIRST MEN OF ENGLAND. (Central News Photo Service.)

FIELD MARSHAL
SIR
DOUGLAS HAIG.

THE STARS AND STRIPES AND THE VARIOUS UNIT STANDARDS BORNE AT THE HEAD OF THE AMERICAN TROOPS. (Central News.)

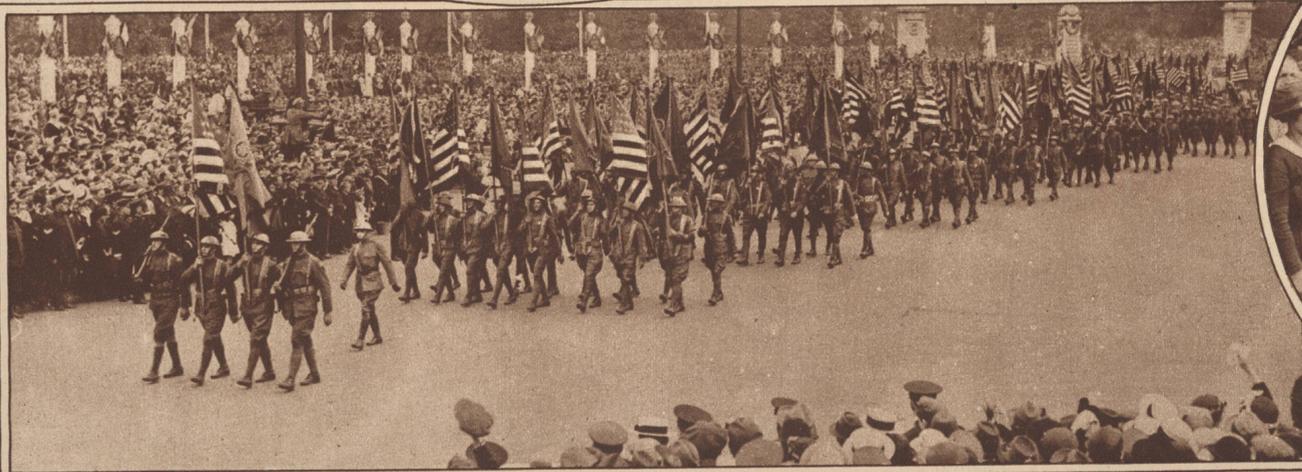

Recently Created a Peer of the British Empire, Riding at the Head of the British Contingent in the Parade. (International Film Service.)

MARSHAL FOCH, AT THE HEAD OF THE FRENCH DIVISION, PASSING THE ROYAL REVIEWING STAND, KING GEORGE V. RETURNING HIS SALUTE. (International Film Service.)

THE FRENCH CONTINGENT, WITH MARSHAL FOCH AT ITS HEAD, PASSING DOWN WESTMINSTER BRIDGE ROAD. (Times Wide World Photos.)

COLOR BEARERS OF THE AMERICAN DIVISION PASSING THE VICTORIA MEMORIAL IN FRONT OF BUCKINGHAM PALACE. (Central News.)

SECTION OF THE LONDON SIDE LINES WHILE THE FRENCH DIVISION WAS PASSING. (Central News.)

EAGLE TA...
BUCK...

WESTMINSTER BRIDGE