

THE AMERICAN NAVY'S NEW MONSTER 14-INCH GUN, WITH A RANGE OF 30 MILES, IN ACTION AT THE INDIAN HEAD PROVING GROUNDS, VIRGINIA.

This Gun Is Shown Mounted for Testing on a Steel Railway Carriage, Which Alone Weighs 320 Tons. The Projectile Weighs 1,400 Lbs.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

TREES DEDICATED TO WORLD PEACE: CHARLES W. ELIOT, President-Emeritus of Harvard University, and George V. Dorr, Superintendent of the Lafayette National Park, Mt. Desert, Me., Transplanting in the Lafayette Park a Sequoia from the Yosemite National Park and a White Pine from the Mt. Desert Nurseries to Commemorate the End of the World War, Many of the Bar Harbor Summer Colony, Including Children, Joining in the Ceremonies.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN MILITARY MISSION TO BERLIN IN FRONT OF THE PALACE OF SANS SOUCI AT POTSDAM, Major Jaka, U. S. A., Head of the Mission, Standing Arm in Arm with the Captain of the Excursion Steamer Which Brought the Parry to the Summer Residence City of the Former Emperor Wilhelm II.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

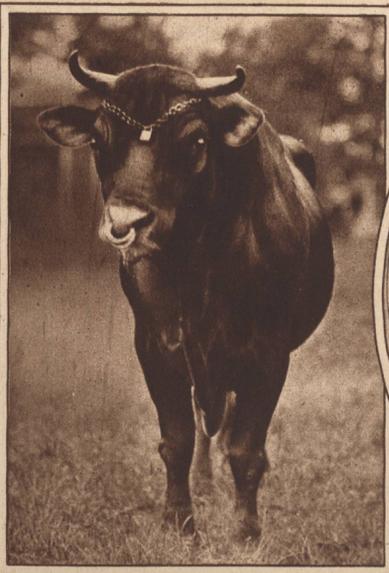

COLONEL ALBERT W. SWALM, Long the American Consul at Southampton, England, Arriving in New York on the Adriatic.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

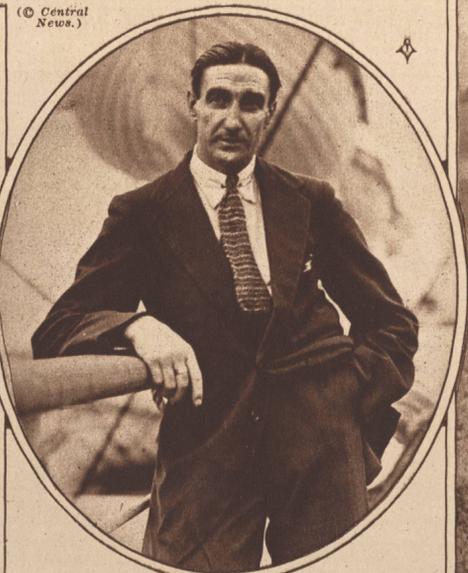

AMERICAN TROOPS ON PARADE IN HYDE PARK, LONDON, at the Decoration of British Officers by General Pershing, Who, with the Prince of Wales, Is Here Shown Saluting the American Flag Borne Past Them.

(© Central News.)

A $65,000 BULL: SYBIL'S GAMBOGE, Recently Sold at Auction by Edmund Butler of Mt. Kisco, New York, to L. V. Walkley of Meriden, Conn., for the Highest Price Ever Paid for a Member of the Bovine Family.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

JACK DONALDSON, the "Australian Blue Streak," Who Holds the World's Record of 9 3-5 Seconds for the 100-Yards Sprint, Arriving on the Adriatic.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

GENERAL PERSHING ARRIVING IN HYDE PARK FOR THE DECORATION BY HIM OF NOTED BRITISH OFFICERS WITH THE AMERICAN DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS. With Him Are the Prince of Wales, Colonel Winston Churchill, British Secretary of State for War, and Mr. Davis, American Ambassador in London.

(© Central News.)