

STRIKING CHORUS GIRLS, LED BY MARIE DRESSLER, PASSING THROUGH COLUMBUS CIRCLE IN THE PARADE OF THE ACTORS' EQUITY ASSOCIATION DOWN BROADWAY ON LAST MONDAY.
(Times Wide World Photos.) Trade Mark.

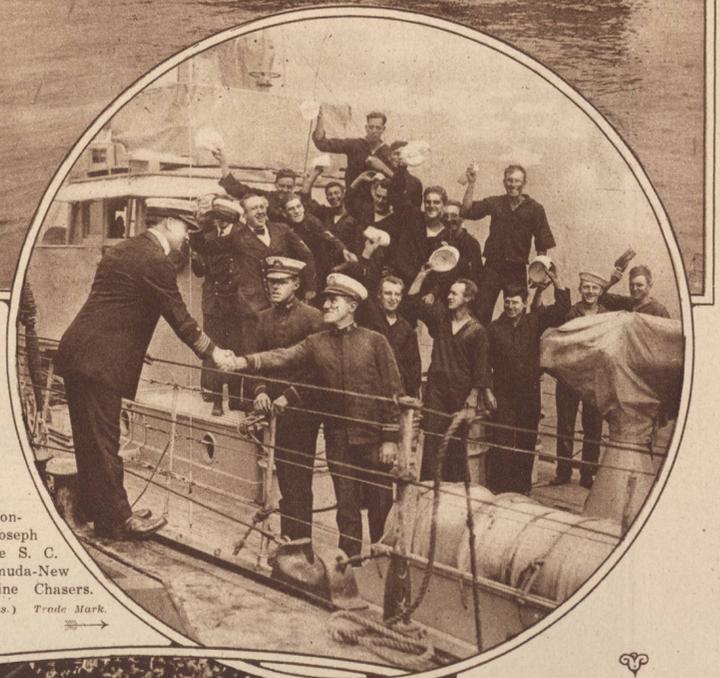

"HEAVEN WILL PROTECT THE WORKING GIRL": MARIE DRESSLER, at the Head of the Chorus Girls on Parade, Striking a Pose Suggestive of Her Song Hit in "Tilly's Nightmare," of Bygone Years. (Times Wide World Photos.) Trade Mark.

DAVID BELASCO, Dean of American Theatrical Producers, Attending a Meeting of Representatives of the Producing Managers and of the Actors' Association, in an Effort to Settle the Actors' Strike.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

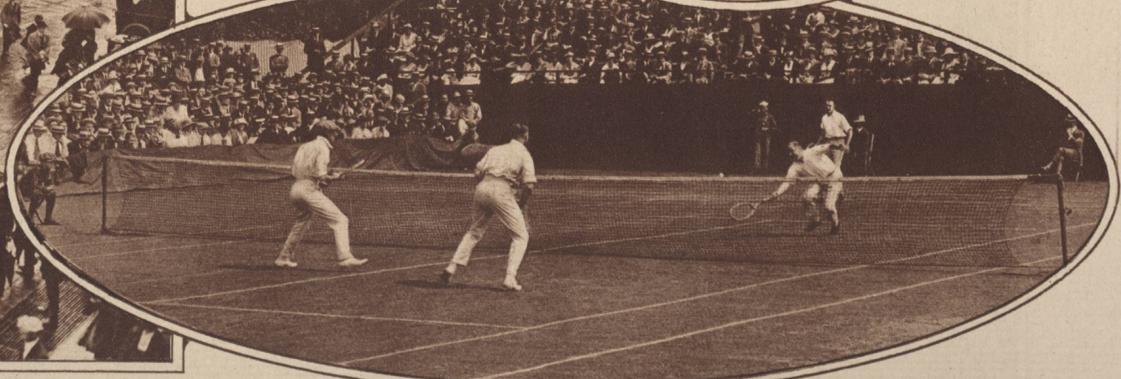

THE S. C. 131, WINNER OF THE OCEAN RACE OF SIX SUBMARINE CHASERS FROM BERMUDA TO NEW YORK, Cheered at the Finish Line by the Crew of the U. S. Destroyer Ellis. Time: 2 Days 9 Hours 20 Minutes.
(Times Wide World Photos.) Trade Mark.

CAPTAIN CHARLES E. COURTNEY, Representing the Navy, Congratulating Lieutenant Joseph L. Day and Crew of the S. C. 131 on Winning the Bermuda-New York Race for Submarine Chasers.
(Times Wide World Photos.) Trade Mark.

"BLUE MONDAY IN NEW YORK": WITH ALL SUBWAY AND ELEVATED TRAINS AND MOST OF THE SURFACE CARS STOPPED BY THE STRIKE, and a Cold, Steady Rain Dealing Out Discomfort Impartially, New York Crowds Clustered About and Clambered Over a Few Surface Cars Which Remained Running. The Car Here Shown, Already Bulging With Its Load, Has Stopped in Times Square to Discharge a Passenger, With Dozens of Others Ready to Struggle to Capture the Vacant Place. (Times Wide World Photos.) Trade Mark.

NORMAN E. BROOKS AND GERALD L. PATTERSON, Australian Tennis Wizards and Winners of the Doubles Championship of the United States, Defeating Johnson and Griffin on the Longwood Cricket Club Courts, Boston.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)