

CANADIAN GIRLS, SELECTED FOR THEIR BEAUTY FROM THE PRINCIPAL CIVIL DIVISIONS OF CANADA, Presenting the "Pageant of the Provinces" Before the Prince of Wales Immediately After He Had Come Ashore at St. John, N. B., Children of St. John Meanwhile Singing "God Bless the Prince of Wales."
(© Times Wide World Photos.)

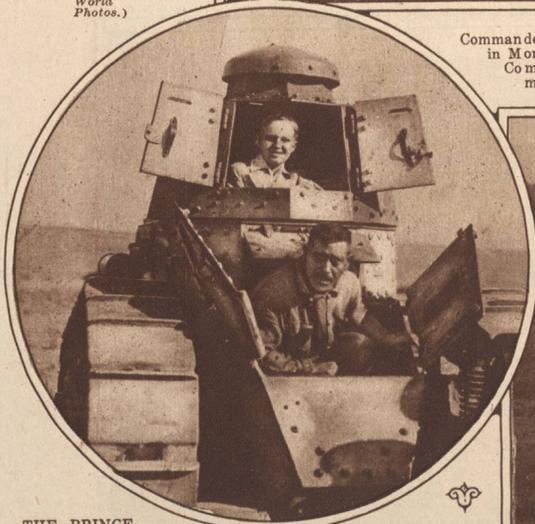

THE PRINCE OF WALES'S SLEEPING APARTMENT ON THE PRIVATE CAR "KILLARNEY" ON WHICH HE WILL LIVE THROUGHOUT HIS TOUR OF CANADA. The Appointments of This Room Are Complete Even to Telephone Connection from the Head of the Prince's Bed with Every Car of the Special Train.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

GENERAL SIR ARTHUR CURRIE, Commander of the Canadian Overseas Corps, Welcomed by Canadian Officials on His Arrival in Montreal from France. In the Group, Left to Right, Are: Brigadier General Armstrong, Commander of the Montreal District; Major General Wilson, Former Montreal Commander; Major General Sir David Watson, General Currie, and Major General Newburn, Canadian Minister of Militia.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

THE PRINCE OF WALES Setting Foot for the First Time on Canadian Soil at Reed's Point, St. John, Where, Fifty-nine Years Ago, the Prince's Grandfather, King Edward VII., Then the Prince of Wales, Also Landed for His Canadian and American Tour. The Duke of Devonshire, Governor General of Canada, is Standing at the Prince's Side, and in the Foreground Sir Robert Borden, Canadian Premier.
(© Times Wide World Photos.)

THE PRINCE OF THE ASTURIAS, Heir to the Spanish Throne, Joy Riding in a French "Baby Tank" at the Recent Spanish Military Manoeuvres Near Madrid.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

WEST POINT CADETS IN FINAL REVIEW BEFORE THE CONCLUSION OF THEIR SUMMER SEASON AND THE BEGINNING OF THEIR ANNUAL HIKE AND MANOEUVRES IN ORANGE AND SULLIVAN COUNTIES.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)