

LEADING REPRESENTATIVES OF CAPITAL AND LABOR IN A CONFERENCE ON A CLOSER UNION AND A BETTER UNDERSTANDING at the Home of Henry P. Davison, Member of J. P. Morgan & Co., at Peacock Point, Locust Valley, L. I. R. J. Caldwell, Special U. S. Commissioner to Investigate Working Conditions in England and Owner of Extensive Cotton Mills in New England, Presenting the Employers' Viewpoint to the Conference, George Gordon Battle, Chairman of the City Parliament of the Greater New York Community Councils, Presiding.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

(Times Wide World Photos.)

MRS. CHARLES GARY RUMSEY, DAUGHTER OF THE LATE E. H. HARRIMAN, WITH MRS. HENRY P. DAVISON, HOSTESS, AT THE CONFERENCE ON INDUSTRIAL NEEDS HELD AT HER HOME.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

HENRY P. DAVISON LISTENING TO THE ADDRESSES AT THE CAPITAL-LABOR CONFERENCE HELD IN THE GROUNDS OF HIS HOME OVERLOOKING LONG ISLAND SOUND.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

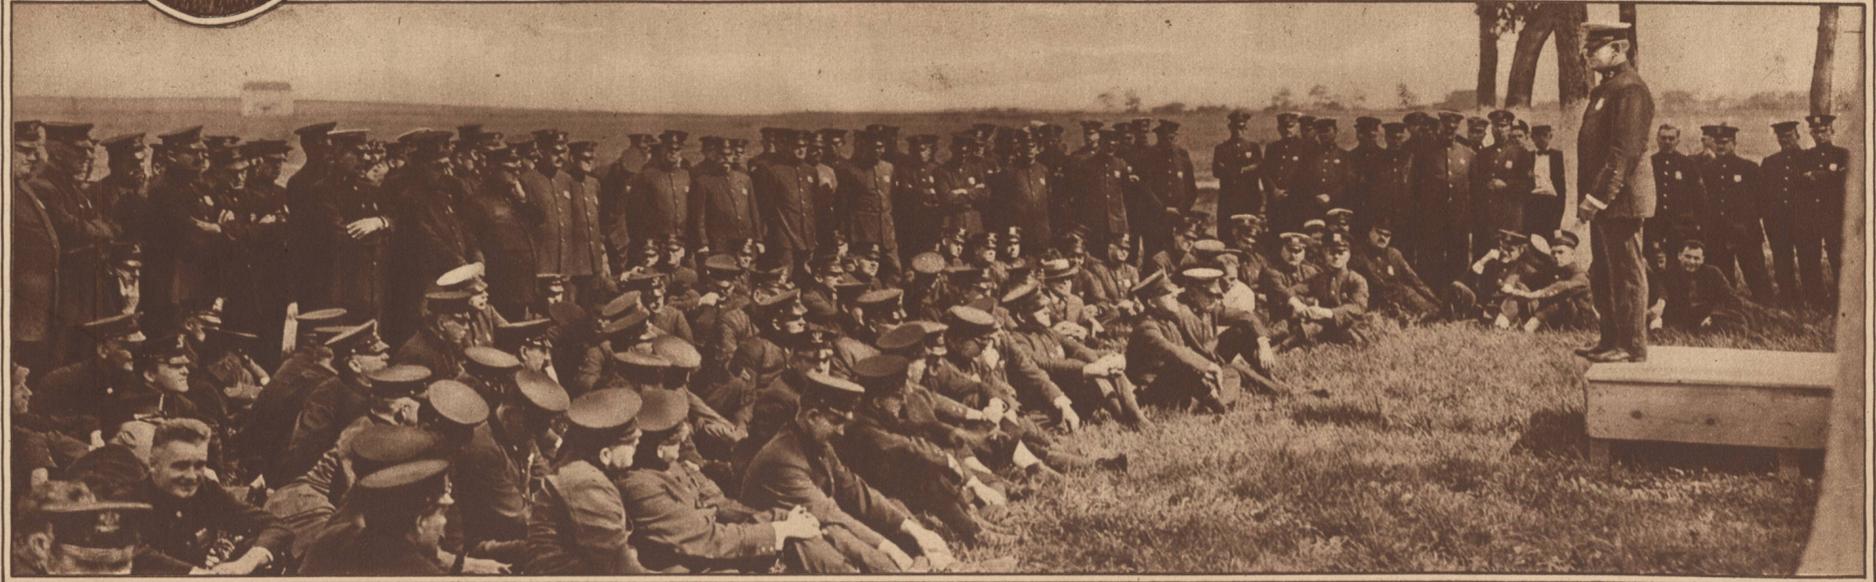

LABOR CHIEFS AT THE CONFERENCE AT THE HOME OF H. P. DAVISON. They Are, Left to Right: Thomas Healy, President of the International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen and Porters; Thomas Rock, Pavers' Union; Thomas J. Curtis, Tunnel and Subway Workers' Union; Abraham Lefkowitz, Teachers' Union, and Charles Barnes, Federal Board of Vocational Education.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

WILD WEST ATMOSPHERE AT CAMP JOHN F. HYLAN: HYLAN: TENSE MOMENTS AT A CRAP GAME, WITH NOT A POLICEMAN IN SIGHT.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

FINISH OF THE POLICE RACE FOR 200-POUNDERS AND OVER AT CAMP JOHN F. HYLAN, PATROLMAN MURPHY, SHOWN AT THE EXTREME RIGHT, WINNING.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

CHIEF INSPECTOR JOHN DALY ADDRESSING MEMBERS OF THE NEW YORK POLICE FORCE AT CAMP JOHN F. HYLAN, SHEEPSHEAD BAY, WHERE THE FORCE IS HOLDING ITS ANNUAL SUMMER ENCAMPMENT.
(Times Wide World Photos.)