

THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON HIS TRIP THROUGH THE WILDS OF ONTARIO, CAMPING AT NIGHT AT CAMERON FALLS, AFTER HIS CANOE TRIP ACROSS NIPIGON LAKE. The Prince, in Slouch Hat, Old Service Coat, and with His Pipe Between His Teeth, Can Be Seen in the Centre of the Picture Surrounded by Guides and Members of His Party, the Fire at Which Will Be Cooked the Evening Meal Blazing Merrily at the Right. (Underwood & Underwood.)

CROSSING
NIPIGON
LAKE:

The Prince of Wales is crouched in the middle of the canoe with his gun lying across the boat in front of him.

THE PRINCE OF WALES, His Guides and Entourage, on the Shore of Nipigon Lake, the Prince Holding a Duck Which He Had Shot While Crossing.

At the Extreme Right is Sir Godfrey Thomas, Private Secretary to the Prince, and at His Right are Lord Claude Hamilton, D. S. O., the Prince's Equerry, and Sir Henry Burstall, K. C. B., Attached Canadian Officer.

KATHRYN MARTYN, Actress and Official Mascot of the British Royal Air Forces, Who is Making Her First Visit to the United States. (Times Wide World Photos.)

HERBERT HOOVER, Food Dictator, First of the United States and Then of the World, Who Returned on the Aquitania for His First Vacation Since Shortly After the World War Began. (Times Wide World Photos.)

MAXINE ELLIOTT, ACTRESS, Returning on the Aquitania. (Times Wide World Photos.)

LORD AND LADY DECIES, the Latter Formerly Miss Vivien Gould, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, Arriving on the Aquitania for Lady Decies's First Visit to Her Native Land in Six Years. (Times Wide World Photos.)

THE GRAVE OF COLONEL THEODORE ROOSEVELT, at Oyster Bay, Now, Surrounded by a High Iron Picket Fence for Protection Against Souvenir Collectors. (© International Film Service.)