

PERSONNEL, WITH ONE EXCEPTION, OF THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE CALLED TO WASHINGTON BY THE PRESIDENT to Devise Remedies for the National Industrial Situation. Seated, Left to Right, Are: Julius Rosenwald, ex-Governor Henry C. Stuart of Virginia and Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts, Thomas W. Gregory, Stanley King, and Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson, Chairman. Standing, Left to Right, Are: Owen D. Young, ex-Governor Martin H. Glynn of New York, Richard Hooker, Herbert Hoover, W. O. Thompson, Oscar S. Straus, George W. Wickersham, Henry M. Robinson, Henry J. Waters, and Professor Frank W. Taussig. (© U. & U.)

REFUGEES IN FLIGHT from the Recent Earthquake
Near Florence,
Italy, in Which More Than 200 Perished
and Thousands Were Made Homeless.

A FLORENTINE HOME CRUMPLED BY THE RECENT EARTHQUAKE, WHICH SHOOK THE CITY AND SURROUNDING COUNTRY TO THEIR FOUNDATIONS. (Times Wide World Photos.)

PUBLIC-SPIRITED ITALIAN WOMEN RUSHING SUPPLIES BY AUTOMOBILE TRAINS TO THE VICTIMS OF THE EARTHQUAKE NEAR FLORENCE. (Times Wide World Photos.)

MISS MILDRED FOWLER GIGNOUX, Awarded the Sarah Streeter Cup as the "Physically Perfect" Senior at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass. (Foley, from Underwood & Underwood.)

JANE COWL IN "SMILIN' THROUGH," a Forthcoming Selwyn Production. (Abbé.)

"THE SEA TOILERS"—BY JONAS LIE, to be Shown in the Coming "Winter Academy." (Peter A. Juley.)

"THE FORTUNE TELLER"—BY FRANCIS JONES, in the Forthcoming Winter Exhibition by the National Academy of Design. (Peter A. Juley.)