

WASHINGTON'S NOVEL COMMUNITY BREAKFAST ON THANKSGIVING DAY UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE Y. W. C. A., WHICH SUPPLIED THE FIRE AND COFFEE, EACH GUEST BRINGING HIS OWN BREAD AND CHOPS.

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

KIJURO SHIDEHERA, New Japanese Ambassador to the United States, Who Recently Arrived in Washington.

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

WALTER P. FOLMER, 21, AS NAMONIA, in "The Isle of Surprise," the Princeton Triangle Club's Forthcoming Annual Dramatic Production in New York. (White.)

GENERAL FELIPE ANGELES, CALLED THE "BRAINS" OF MEXICO'S MILITARY LEADERSHIP, AND STAFF.

General Angeles, Seated Third from the Left, Was Recently Executed by a Carranza Firing Squad at Chihuahua City, Having Been Found Guilty by Court-Martial of Complicity With Villa Bands.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

HELEN NEWITT, Who Is to Sing the Leading Soprano Role in the Forthcoming Production of "The Wayfarer," at Madison Square Garden, Heralded as the Most Stupendous Dramatic Production Staged in This Country.

MARGARET LAWRENCE

in "Wedding Bells," at the Harris Theatre. (Abbe.)

GENERAL ANGELES'S SON TO "CARRY ON"; ALBERTO ANGELES, Now in New York, Who Vows to Take Up the Work of His Father, Executed by Carranza as a Mexican Revolutionist.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

MRS. FELIPE ANGELES, Who Was So Desperately Ill in New York at the Time of Her Husband's Execution That the News of His Death Could Not Be Broken to Her.

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)