

A GERMAN SUBMARINE, DRIVEN ASHORE BY ALLIED GUNFIRE, POUNDING TO PIECES IN THE SHALLOW WATER.
From a Hitherto Unpublished Photograph Just Received from Germany
(© International Film Service.)

INA CLAIRE,
in "The Gold Diggers,"
at the Lyceum.
(Ira L. Hill.)

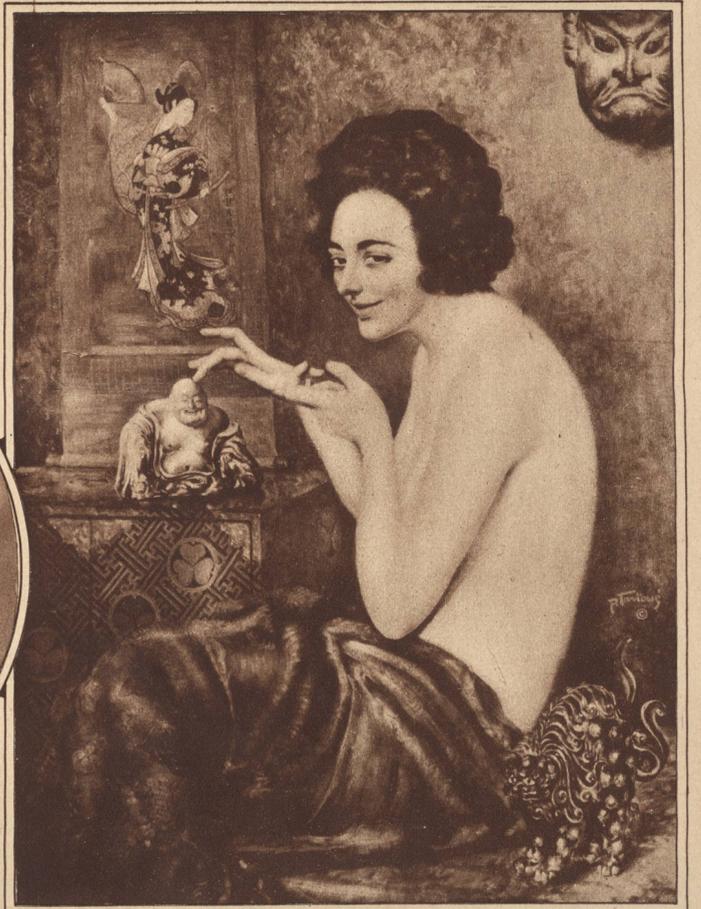

THE BURNING OF THE CARGO OF A JAPANESE STEAMSHIP IN CHINA AS A PROTEST AGAINST JAPAN'S CLAIM TO SHANTUNG.

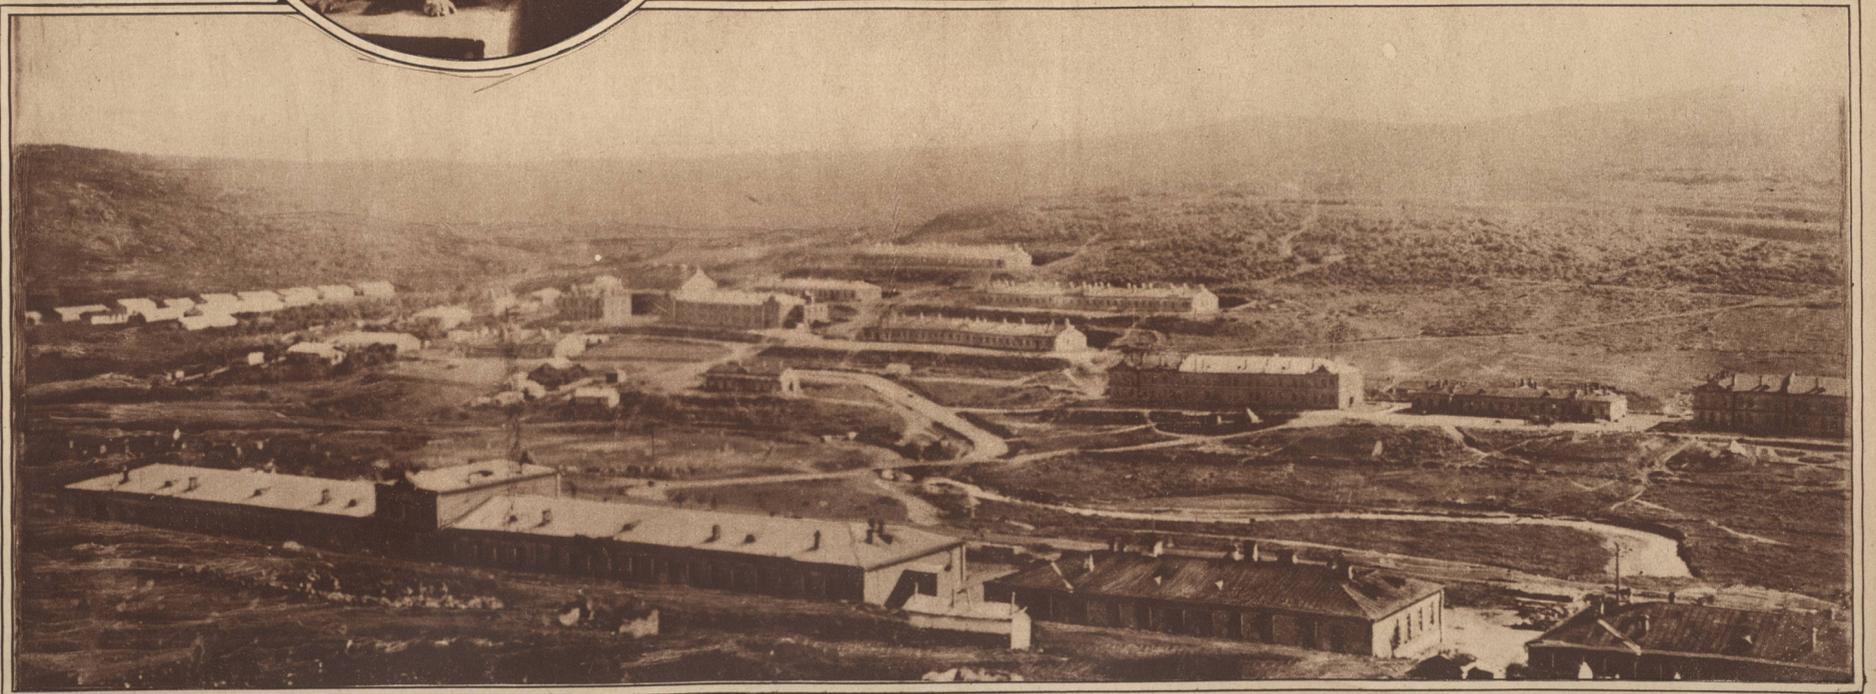

MRS. E. G. AUCHINCLOSS,
Who Recently Returned from France After Nearly Two years' Work for the French and American Red Cross at the Hospital Lycee Descartes, in Tours, for Which She Received Two Decorations from the French Government, the Medaille d'Honneur des Epidemics and the Medaille de Reconnaissance.
(Bradley Studios.)

AN UNUSUAL PET:
Miss Evelyn Houghton,
Daughter of Professor
C. E. Houghton of New York University, With Her Trained Timber
Wolf, Which Was Caught in Texas.

"THE GOD OF HAPPINESS"—BY PIERRE TARTOUE,
Recently Acquired By Mrs. Alfred I. du Pont of Wilmington, Del.
(© Pierre Tartoue, Photo by Hugo'stein Bros.)

"SOMEWHERE IN RUSSIA": WINTER HEADQUARTERS OF THE AMERICAN TROOPS NOW STATIONED IN THE FAR EAST.
(© Press Illustrating Service.)