

ANSWERING THE CALL IN THE NATION'S TIME OF DISTRESS: VOLUNTEER MINERS OF KANSAS. Including Bankers, College Students, and Former Service Men, to Relieve Intense Suffering from Zero Weather in the Middle West, Digging Coal from a Strip Pit Mine Near Pittsburg, Kansas. (Times Wide World Photos.)

FORMER AMERICAN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS FROM THE ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT OF KANSAS UNIVERSITY

Manning a Pit Train in Strip Pit Mine, Carbon No. 3, Scammon, Kansas, Now Being Worked by University Student Volunteers. (Times Wide World Photos.)

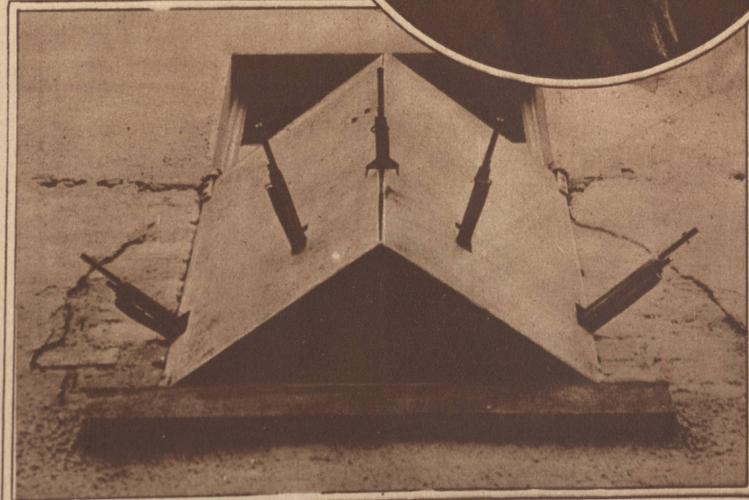

MISS MARY L. CONAN DOYLE, Eldest Daughter of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Creator of Sherlock Holmes, Arriving in New York for a Tour of the Country. (Times Wide World Photos.)

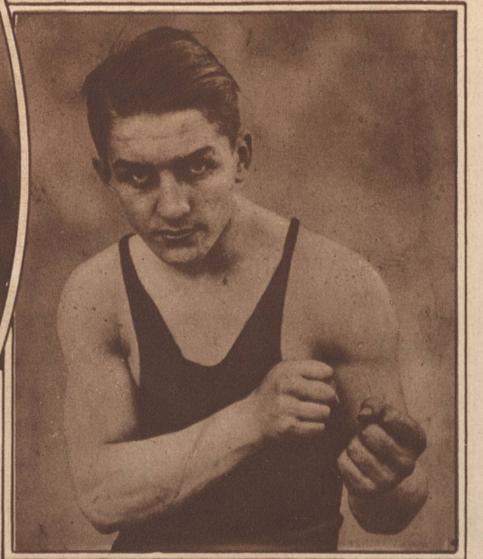

DONNA CARLOTTA ORLANDO, Only Daughter of Italy's War Premier, Now President of the Italian Chamber of Deputies. (© Int. Film Service.)

FORMER SERVICE MEN, MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION IN KANSAS, AND NOW VOLUNTEER MINERS, "Chucking" at the Tipple Shack Between Shifts of Mining in the Strip Pits. The Temperature Is Below Zero, With a Forty-Mile Gale Driving Frozen Snow. (Times Wide World Photos.)

BRITISH SOLDIERS, CHARGED WITH KEEPING ORDER IN SINN FEIN IRELAND, Fortify Their Barracks Against Fenian Raids With Heavy Steel Shutters, Bristling With Rifles. (© Central News Service.)

GEORGE S. CARPENTIER, French Champion, Who Knocked Out Joe Beckett, England's "Best Bet," in Seventy-four Seconds at Holborn Stadium, London. Carpentier Is Now Expected to Meet Dempsey for the World's Championship in May or June Next Year. (© Central News Service.)