

NIAGARA FALLS BY MAN'S OWN HAND: FOR THE FIRST TIME IN FOURTEEN YEARS WATER
Is Flowing Over the Huge Dam of the Croton Reservoir at the Estimated Rate of 2,000,000,000 Gallons a Day, the

GRANDDAUGHTER OF CHARLES DICKENS WEDS: THE FORMER MISS ELAINE DICKENS
and the Bridegroom, Major Alexander Waley, M. C., South Kensington, With the Bridesmaids and Pages After the Wedding Ceremony. (Times Wide World Photos.)

Vast Tide Dropping to the Croton
River, 150 Feet

Below.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

JOSHUA W. ALEX-ANDER,
New Secretary of Commerce,
in Succession to William C.
Redfield.
(© Harvis &
Ewing, from Past Thompson.)

MISS ADELAIDE
KIP RHINE-LANDER,

Debutante Daughter of Philip Rhinelander of New York.
(De Strelcki.)

ELSIE JANIS, WITH THE GIRLS OF "HER GANG,"
in Her New Play at the George M. Cohan
Theatre. (Pohle.)

KING VICTOR EMMANUEL II. OF ITALY AND NOTABLES, INCLUDING SEVERAL AMERICAN OFFICERS,
Reviewing Italian Troops Parading in Rome in Celebration of the King's Birthday. Seated on Horseback Immediately to the King's Left Is the Italian Minister of War.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

THE BERSAGLIERI PASSING IN REVIEW BEFORE THE ITALIAN KING ON HIS MAJESTY'S BIRTHDAY.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

MAURICE MAETERLINCK,
Belgian Poet, Who Is Soon to Arrive in America to Attend the Premiere of "The Blue Bird" in Operatic Form, to be Sung at the Metropolitan Opera House in Christmas Week.