

A VIRGINIA GIRL, THE FIRST OF HER SEX TO SIT IN THE BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS: SCENE DURING THE OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE STEPS OF THE GUILD-HALL, PLYMOUTH, ENGLAND, of the Election of Lady Astor, Formerly Miss Nancy Langhorne of Mirador, Albemarle County, Va., as a Member of the British Parliament Over Her Nearest Opponent by More Than 5,000 Votes. (© Central News Service.)

THANKING HER CONSTITUENTS FOR THEIR VOTES AND THEIR CONFIDENCE: LADY ASTOR Speaking from the Balcony of the Conservative Club at Plymouth. (© Central News Service.)

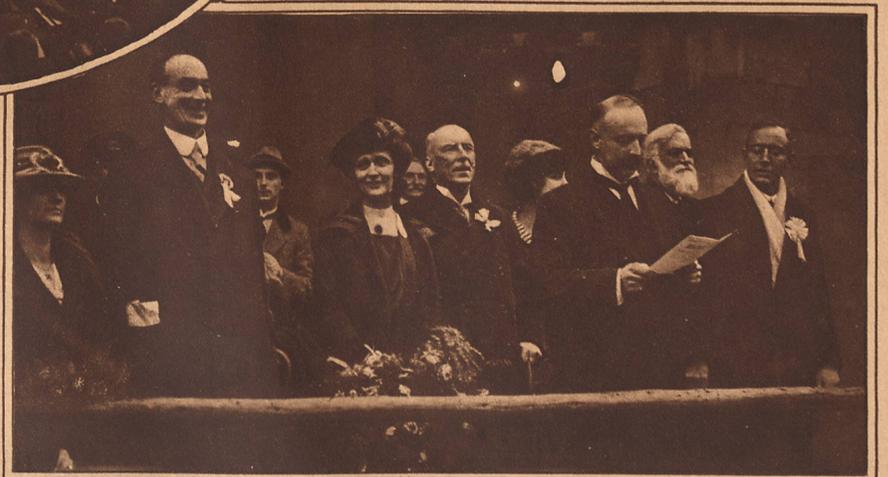

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC, WITH SECRETARY BAKER ON BOARD, IN THE UPPER EAST CHAMBER OF THE GATUN LOCKS OF THE PANAMA CANAL. (Times Wide World Photos.)

LADY ASTOR, After the Announcement of Her Election, Being Drawn by Her Constituents Through Cheering Throngs in the Streets of Plymouth. (© Central News Service.)

THE AMERICAN ARMY TRANSPORT, Northern Pacific, Bearing Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, General March, Chief of Staff, and Secretary Baker's Party, Passing Through Gaillard Cut on Secretary's Baker's First Inspection of Panama Canal. (Times Wide World Photos.)

THE OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF LADY ASTOR'S ELECTION. At Lady Astor's Right Stands W. T. Gay, Labor Candidate, and at the Official Spokesman's Left, Isaac Foot, the Liberal Candidate, Both of Whom She Defeated. (© Central News Service.)

SECRETARY BAKER AND GENERAL MARCH, ESCORTED BY GOVERNOR CHESTER HARDING, Climbing the Steps of the Gatun Locks to the Control House to Witness the Lockage of the Northern Pacific from the Middle to the Upper Chamber. (Times Wide World Photos.)