

COLONEL
JOSEPH E. WILLARD,
AMERICAN AMBASSADOR TO
SPAIN, AND HIS GRANDCHILDREN, "LITTLE KIM" (KERMIT ROOSEVELT, JR.) AND WILLARD ROOSEVELT.
(© Walter Scott Shinn.)

WHAT IS THIS CAT'S JOB? ASKS NEW YORK'S MAYOR.
She Lives in the Cellar of the Board of Education Building, and During Vacation
Time Lapped Up $6.50 Worth of Milk to be Paid For by the City, Thereby and to That Extent Swelling the City's $270,000,000 Budget. What Duties Does She Perform for the City of New York? Demands the Mayor.
The Commissioner of Accounts Is Investigating. There Is Much Excitement.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GENERAL PERSHING ON A TOUR OF INSPECTION OF CAMP JACK-SON, S. C.
Standing With Him Are Governor
Cooper of South Carolina and General
G. W. Read, Camp Jackson's Commanding Officer.
(International Film Service.)

PRINCESS MARIE LOUISE,
Daughter of Princess Christian, Opening the Headquarters of the East Anglian Divisional Union of Y. M. C. A.'s at Ipswich, England, to be Known as the "Red Triangle House." The Princess is Seated at the Right.
(© Central News
Service.)

GENERAL CANDIDO AGUILAR,
Son-in-Law of President Carranza of Mexico, Now in England on a Special Mission to Promote an "Era of Good Feeling" Among the English for the Mexicans.
(Central News
Service.)

MISS MAZIE E. CLEMENS,
Special Representative of the National Catholic War Council, in the Garb of an Italian Peasant Girl, in Which She Entered Fiume
in Defiance of the Blockade Order, Carrying Food and Clothing to Captain D'Annunzio's Supporters.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

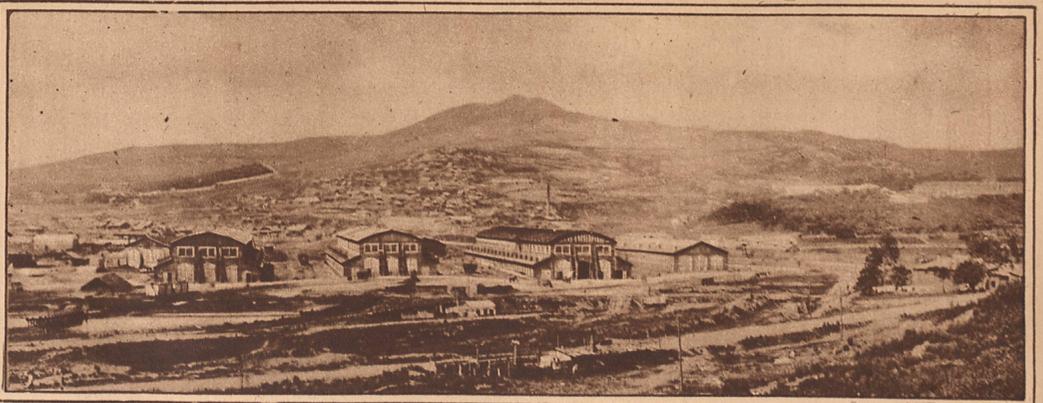

GENERAL
RUDOLPH GAIDA
(CENTRE)
Czech Leader at the Age of 25, Who Recently Headed an Abortive Revolution Against the Kolchak Government. Being Wounded and Captured in the Fighting Which Followed, He Is Now at Vladivostok Under Sentence of Deportation.
(Harry Beardsley, from Times Wide World Photos.)

MEMO-RIAL AT CLARENS-
MONTREUX,
SWITZERLAND,
Just Erected in Memory of the Allied Soldiers Who Died While
Interned in that Country.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

HOMeward BOUND AT LAST: MEN OF THE ORIGINAL A. E. F. IN SIBERIA
Boarding a Transport at Vladivostok for the Homeward Journey After More Than a Year of Exile in the Far East.
(Harry Beardsley, from Times Wide World Photos.)

THE AMERICAN FAR EAST BASE AT THE HEAD OF GOLDEN HORN BAY, the Buildings Having Been Originally Erected by the Baldwin Locomotive Works for Assembling Locomotives Shipped from the United States for the Trans-Siberian Railroad.
(Harry Beardsley, from Times Wide World Photos.)