

U. S. DREADNOUGHT NEW MEXICO, FLAGSHIP OF THE NEWLY CREATED PACIFIC FLEET, Entering the Golden Gate, San Francisco, in a Pathway of Equally Golden Sunlight, as Seen from a Naval Sea-plane in Flight Nearly a Thousand Feet Above.
(U. S. Naval-Official Photograph, from Kadel & Herbert.)

THE GREEK TROOPSHIP PATRIS ENTERING THE HARBOR OF SMYRNA

Bearing Units of the Greek Army Now Occupying the Chief Seaport of Asiatic Turkey, the Landing Being Made Under the Protection of the Guns of Greek Battleships, One of Which, Purchased from the United States Some Years Ago, Appears in the Central Background.

(Gherali, from Times Wide World Photos.)

UNITS OF THE GREEK ARMY DEBARKING AT SMYRNA TO OCCUPY THE CITY.
(Gherali, from Times Wide World Photos.)

ALSATIAN GIRLS IN NATIONAL COSTUME MARCHING PAST THE OFFICIAL REVIEWING STAND AT THE FIRST OPENING OF STRASSBURG UNIVERSITY Since the Restoration of the "Lost Province," President Poincare, Marshal Joffre, and Other High French Officials, Who Appear on the Stand, Participating in the Ceremonies.

(International Film Service.)

MRS. HERBERT A. JEAGERHUBER, Who Was Born in Korea of German Father and English Mother, Who Met Her Husband in Holland, Where She Was a Teacher of English, and Where They Were Married, Mr. Jeagerhuber Having Been Born in the West Indies of American Parents, Arriving on the Cedric to Make Her Home in New York.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

OLD MAIDS' DAY IN PARIS: MIDINETTES, as the Girl Milliners of Paris Are Called, Having Reached the Age of Twenty-five With No Husbands in Sight, and Chances of Marriage Extremely Slender Due to the Havoc of War, Celebrating in Honor of St. Catherine, Patron Saint of "Old Maids" Everywhere.
(International Film Service.)

MRS. ARCHIBALD McNEIL, JR., Formerly Miss Anne Orr, Selected by Senator Daniels to Christen the New Giant Submarine S-16, to be Launched This Week at Bridgeport, Conn.
(Underwood & Underwood.)