

IT REPLACED A CATHEDRAL OF FRANCE; PRESIDENT POINCARE AND PARTY ENTERING A LITTLE CHURCH IN THE ARDENNES, ERECTED OF PINE BOARDS IN A WAR-DEVASTATED SECTOR NEAR WHERE STOOD ONE OF THE MANY BEAUTIFUL GOTHIC SHRINES WHICH FELL PREY TO GERMAN VANDALISM.

(International Film Service.)

LIEUTENANT MARCHAL, Famous French Aviator, Who, on June 21, 1916, Flew Across the Entire German Empire to Russia Dropping Leaflets Instead of Bombs on Berlin in Passing, Arriving on the Lafayette with Mme. Marchal.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

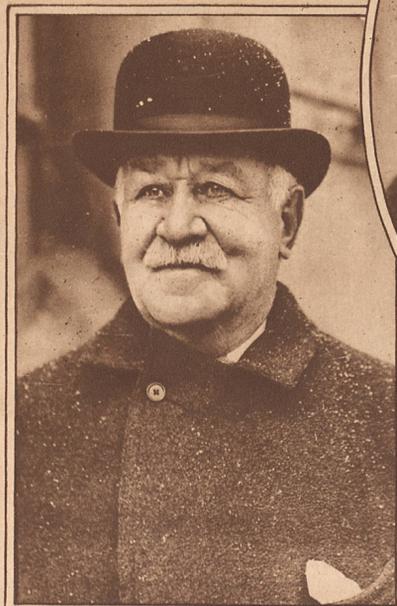

PRESIDENT POINCARE, ON A TOUR OF INSPECTION THROUGH DEVASTATED FRANCE, CALLING AT A RECONSTRUCTED DWELLING OF A RETURNED FRENCH FAMILY.

(International Film Service.)

ENVER PASHA (LEFT), WHO, WHILE UNDER A DEATH SENTENCE from a Court-Martial at Constantinople, Has Become the King of Kurdistan, the Turkish Region Lying Between Mesopotamia and Persia.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

MRS. RICHARD CROKER, Who Accompanies Her Husband to Their Florida Home for the Winter.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

THE RETIRED TIGER OF TAMMANY: RICHARD CROKER Arriving on the Carmania on His Way to His Winter Home in Florida.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

PRINCESS MARY, ONLY DAUGHTER OF THE BRITISH KING AND QUEEN, Decorating With the Land Girls' V. C. Ten Young Women Who Rendered Particularly Valuable Services as Members of the British Land Army, the Ceremonies Taking Place in the Drapers Hall, London.

(Times Wide World Photos.)