

DR. LYMAN ABBOTT AT 84.
He is Here Shown at His Desk on His Birthday Anniversary a Week Ago, Which He Spent in the Office of The Outlook, of Which He Has Been the Editor for More Than Half a Century.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

KING ALPHONSO XIII OF SPAIN,
at the Opening of the Spanish National Engineering Exposition, "Listening In" Without Antennae, on Messages Flashed by Wireless Between the Nauen Station, Germany, and the United States.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

SENORA M. SEVALE MENOICAL,
Wife of the President of Cuba, and Their Son and Daughter, M. G. Menocal, Jr., and Sonorita Georgina Menocal, Arriving on the Rotterdam After a Sojourn of Ten Weeks in Paris.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

MRS. CHARLES OLIVER,
Better Known to Her American Countrymen as Ruth Law, Aviatix, Returning from France, Where She Spent Several Months in Search of a Suitable Airplane for Her Contemplated Around-the-World Race in the Aero Club of America Competition.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

MARY RYAN,
in "The Sign on the Door," at the Republic Theatre.
(White.)

JANE RICHARDSON, WITH EUNIE SHOFU AND GEORGETTE SAIKRAI, in "The Rose of China," at the Lyric Theatre.
(Abb.)

PRINCE ALBERT DE HOHENLOHE AND PRINCESS DE HOHENLOHE,
Who Was Formerly Miss Catherine Britton of Washington, Arriving on the Rotterdam With Their Young Son, Alexander. Prince de Hohenlohe Was Formerly an Attaché of the Austrian Embassy. He is Now a Citizen of the Republic of Poland, and Consequently No Longer an Alien Enemy.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

THE PERSHING SMILE:
A Motion Picture Camera Records the Countenance of the Former Commander of the A. E. F. from the Quizzical Expression at the Beginning of a Story Through the Gamut of Its Progress, Climax, and Conclusion, a Film Record Which Would Have Been Beyond All Price Could It Have Been Made of the First Commander in Chief of the American Armies.
(International Film Service.)

PRESIDENT SAMUEL GOMPERS OF THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR AND LABOR LEADERS REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ENTIRE UNION ORGANIZATIONS IN THE UNITED STATES, Assembled Before the Labor Headquarters in Washington on the Recent Occasion of Their Discussion of Anti-Strike Legislation and Other Policies Culminating in Their Petition to the President for Government Retention of the Railroads for Two Years Longer.
(© Press Illustrating Service.)