

New Gravure
PICTURE
SECTION OF
THE WORLD
New York
Sept. 26, 1915

WORLD PICTURES

THREE FAVORITES of the FILMS. on
PAGE 8

BEACHING OF THE TRANSPORT RIVER CLYDE

This remarkable photograph shows the desperate methods employed by the British to land troops on the Gallipoli Peninsula. The huge liner was deliberately run on the rocks to get her close to shore. Note her bow, painted with imitation waves to deceive the enemy as to her speed. In the background is a battleship covering the landing with heavy gunfire.

(C) Int. News Service.