

THEATRE SEASON IN FULL SWING.

Strong Attractions of Last Week to Be Supplemented by the Non-Appearance of Mrs. Carter as Zaza.

L. K. Tillotson's melodrama, "A Young Wife," will be continued at the Fourteenth Street Theatre.

An army of decorators have been working night and day in Koster & Bial's Music Hall, which will open September 15, with a very attractive bill to be offered.

The last week of Hammerstein's Venetian Terrace Garden is announced, and to it as memorable as the opening he arranged a programme of all-star features.

The programme at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre this week contains numerous features that have gained a strong foothold in vaudeville.
