

LEAVES THE FIGHT TO THE JOURNAL.

Accepts the Report of the Grabbers as Satisfactory to Him and Says the Matter Is Now Out of His Hands.

Attorney-General Davies May Take Up the Cause of the People Against the Threatened Steal of Millions.

Action Is Expected from Him This Week, When He Will Review the Frothy Report Designed to Deceive the Public.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Need for the killing of the Ramapo Water Company and its scheme to join the New York City treasury as demanded by the Journal in its application to Attorney-General Davies, has been fully shown by the Ramapo report of its lack of business and earnings filed with Comptroller Morgan yesterday.

Counsel for the Journal are fully satisfied that the report makes it incumbent for the Attorney-General, acting for the people, to begin suit to annul Ramapo corporate existence. David B. Hill, counsel for the Journal, read the Ramapo report with interest, but declined to discuss it at this time. He believes, however, that it corroborates the Journal's claim that the Ramapo Company is a buccannering venture, without substance, except that which it gets from bribery and political deals, and is a menace to public safety.

Besides proving the Journal's case, the Ramapo report, which the Comptroller accepts as authentic, corroborates its own statement of its affairs, made before the Attorney-General, and in general, duty is said to be wholly as required by the truth. But Comptroller Morgan says the Ramapo incident is closed so far as his office is concerned. It is left to the Journal to protect the public. Attorney-General Davies probably will decide Ramapo's fate this week.

As shown by the Journal, contradiction after contradiction has marked Ramapo efforts to escape the Journal's prosecution, undertaken on behalf of the people. Before the Attorney-General it was shown that the company's capital was paid in "property." To the Comptroller the company's answer to the question, "Paid up capital stock," is "$2,500,000," presumably money. Besides, testimony before the Mazet Committee showed that the company had been paid in, and that the company had neither money nor real property.

Other evidence has been that none of the stock ever was paid for. Horace Greeley La Mont, treasurer of the company, swears to the Comptroller that the amount paid to the treasury of the company on each share was $100.

Counsel consider that the report, besides being inaccurate, shows that the company has done no business as required by its charter, and is therefore subject to dissolution under the law. It is deemed that a company which has no business, no earnings and no dividends is a defunct creature. That was the Journal's claim before the Attorney-General.

SAILORS OF THE OLYMPIA STRANDED IN NEW YORK.

Overstayed Their Leave, and Are Told at the Navy Yard to Swim or Walk to Boston.

When the cruiser Olympia sailed for Boston she left behind her several of her company still revelling in the hospitality of New York patriots.

They awoke yesterday to the fact that it was time to return to a seafaring life. Several went to the Navy Yard in Brooklyn, and laid their case before an officer on the Vermont.

"We got the coldest 'throw down' we ever received," said one of them. "He told us that there were two ways of getting to Boston. One was to swim and the other was to walk. He advised us to walk, however, as he said the swimming was cold. Then he chased us out of the yard."

Three of the men, two of whom were Manila medals, applied for free transportation to the City of Providence, Rhode Island, but they were refused, as they were on the Providence line. They still have hopes of help at the City of Providence. If that fails, they say they will "hoof it" after the Olympia.

WOMAN WHIPS THE MAN WHO KICKED HER DOG.

The Affair a Sunday Afternoon Sensation on a Main Street of Springfield, O.

Springfield, Ohio, Oct. 8.—Mrs. William Ormsbee, a popular society woman, cut John Krapp, a well-known merchant, three times across the face with a whip because he kicked her dog this afternoon. A suit and a countersuit, charging assault and battery, will result.

Mrs. Ormsbee was walking down one of the main streets when she passed Krapp. He kicked her dog, causing it to yell. Mrs. Ormsbee turned about, seized her whip and brought it down with full force across the merchant's face.

At the third blow Krapp caught the whip and wrestled it from the woman. In doing so he hurt her hand. Both ran to Police headquarters, each demanding a warrant against the other.

DOUBT IN WISEMAN CASE.

Possibility That Story of Cruelty Was Fabricated.

It is not unlikely that the case of Sadie Wiseman, whose death in Paterson, N. J., last week was alleged to be due to ill-treatment she received in the State Industrial School for Girls, will go on record, not as an instance of cruelty to a child, but as an example of remarkable duplicity in a young girl and of serious mistakes by older persons.

County Physician McBride and Prosecutor Emley decided not to hold an inquest. The factors admitted that they have no evidence that would suggest that an inquest was necessary, and mentioned that they had granted a certificate of natural death.

A letter has come to light written by the girl after her arrival home from the school, and in it she admits that she was treated well there.

Sixty-six Years in One Church.

The "Old Sixteenth" Baptist Church, at No. 257 West Sixteenth street, entered upon its sixty-sixth year yesterday. Many old members attended the morning service. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. A. W. H. Hodder, congratulated the friends of the church on its freedom from debt. An effort is being made to raise an endowment fund for work in the lower part of the city. This is the oldest Baptist church in New York now worshipping on the original site.

NEW YORK SONGBIRD FASCINATES MAINE.

Carrie Bridewell, Contralto Soloist.

Achieves Great Success at the Musical Festival in Which Mme. Sembrich Appeared as the Prima Donna and Has a Brilliant Future.

CARRIE BRIDEWELL, the young contralto soloist of the Madison Square Presbyterian Church, achieved great success last week at the Maine Musical Festival, of which Mme. Sembrich was the prima donna. Although very young, Miss Bridewell is well known in the concert and oratorio field, having distinguished herself with the Boston Symphony, the New York Symphony and the Mozart Club of Pittsburgh.

Her voice is a contralto dramatic, having a range of three octaves, from low C to high C. She is a Southern girl, born in New Orleans, but for some years a resident of this city.

PATERSON BOYCOTT POLITICIAN HURT LIKE CLEVELAND'S IN A HOTEL FIGHT.

Strikers Coerce Tradesmen by Threats Not to Sell to "Scabs."

Henry C. Schrader Unable to Appear Against George Walsh.

The strike at the silk mill of John Hand & Sons at South Paterson, N. J., is now supplemented by a boycott.

The strikers last week assaulted several work people. Their plan was to follow them from the mill to their homes, throwing stones and tooting fish horns. When those who were followed objected there were scurrilous and collisions. A dozen alleged offenders were arrested, most of them women. They will be tried to-day.

It is daily growing more difficult for those who have taken the places of strikers to obtain the necessities of life. The hands whom they supplanted follow them about and warn tradesmen not to deal with "scabs" or accept "scab money."

Signs bearing the "Scab" are placed upon the houses of employes during the night.

One woman who has fought the strikers at every point was followed to church by a noisy throng. Her tormentors went inside and sat through the sermon in order to take up the pursuit of her when she left.

She has had several personal encounters with strikers, and on one occasion slapped a youth in the face when he annoyed her. She declares that the strikers abducted her little girl, but, becoming frightened, returned her at the end of half a day. A coal dealer declined to accept payment for a ton of coal that he had already delivered at her house, saying he was afraid to take "scab money," and so she got the coal for nothing.

The police, it is said, have not made very serious efforts to put a stop to the disturbances.

The firm of John Hand & Sons is backed strongly by the Manufacturers' Association. The men have the support of their fellows employed in other mills. It is admitted by all those involved in the struggle that the situation is becoming more dangerous daily.

There will be some excitement at the trial of the girl strikers to-day.

LIVELY FIGHT EXPECTED IN CARMEL CONVENTION.

Addis and Fish Factions Both Want to Name the Candidate for Assembly.

Cold Spring, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The convention to nominate a Republican candidate for Assemblyman will be held at Carmel next Thursday, and a lively struggle is anticipated.

For two years the fight between the factions of Emerson W. Addis and of ex-Speaker Hamilton Fish, who have long controlled every convention, has been a bitter one. The bitterness has increased rather than diminished, and both sides are straining every nerve. Addis seems willing to support any man who has not taken sides in the fight, but those on the inside claim that Fish will name the candidate. It is a fight to the finish, but the indications are that Addis will win.

GYPSY TRIBE LEADER RETIRES WITH $100,000.

Got the Money by Trading Horses and from the Women Fortune Tellers.

After being at the head of the gypsy bands that wander through the Eastern and New England States for more than a quarter of a century, Nallor Harrison has decided to abandon his roving life and settle down on a farm, which he recently purchased near Madison, N. J. Harrison has a wife and fourteen children, ten of whom will move with him on the farm, the other five declining to abandon the gypsy life.

Harrison is reported to have $100,000, all of which he has made by horse trading and from the fortune telling of the women of the tribe.

JOURNAL WINS NEW ENDSLESS CHAINS TO FOES FOR ROBERTS GIVE SCHLEY A HOME.

Chicago Women in the Fight to Bar Him from Congress.

CRUSADE IS SPREADING.

Dr. Julia Holmes Smith Says the Political Equality League Is Against the Mormon.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—The New York Journal's crusade for the expulsion of Representative Roberts, of Utah, from the National House will be taken up by Chicago women. One meeting already has been called to be held in the Fourth Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, at which the Rev. W. K. Notman will make an address. Announcements for this meeting have been sent to a large number of women, and the representation will be large, undoubtedly, as there is much interest in the crusade.

Dr. Julia Holmes Smith, president of the Political Equality League, said some action by that organization was nearly certain, regarding it as fitting that the suffrage society should protest against the seating of Roberts.

"I think it likely," said Dr. Smith, "that the Journal's protest will be taken up by several women's organizations in Chicago."

"It is right that women should enter their protest against Roberts," said Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevenson. "The Utah Representative stands openly in violation of the laws of the country, and I think the defenders of the home and fireside should protest."

Miss Edna McClellan.

The young and pretty admirer of Rear-Admiral Schley has started endless chains to raise funds with which to give him a house in Washington.

Miss Edna McClellan, an Admirer of the Rear Admiral, Starts a Plan for a National Testimonial to the Hero of Santiago.

REAR ADMIRAL SCHLEY may well count Miss Edna McClellan among his very warm friends and supporters, and if her plan succeeds he will have something substantial to be grateful for.

Miss McClellan, who is young and pretty, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Welles McClellan, of No. 105 West Seventy-seventh street, was much impressed by the tremendous applause for Admiral Schley in the Dewey Day parade.

She decided that Admiral Schley should have a house in Washington, as well as Dewey. She saw no reason why Schley's admirers should not come forward with their dollars and dime. She returned to her home and laid out a plan for the work which has just begun. She has started endless chains to raise the dime. Subscriptions in all amounts will be gratefully received.

Miss McClellan will ask Governor Roosevelt and Miss Helen Gould to be members of the committee to control the fund. She will ask the assistance of President McKinley and members of his Cabinet, and will go to Washington, if necessary, to seek the aid of members of Congress.

She is very busy writing endless chain letters to be sent to all parts of the country. She is very confident of success.

Schley's admirers are legion, she knows. She feels, like all his friends, that he has never received due credit from the Government for his splendid victory off Santiago, and she believes they will welcome an opportunity to show their appreciation by substantial contributions to this fund.

Miss McClellan has not considered the price of the residence to be purchased nor the location, but she is confident that this present from the people of the nation will be worthy of his position as a great naval commander.

Chief of the Shamrock's reserve forces is her giant club topsail, which is nearly one-third larger than the one she has carried thus far in the international yacht races. It is shown in the above cut. The reserve topsail measures seventy feet on the yard and fifty feet on the leach.

While it is designed for light weather, it can be used only in a light sea, as in even such a swell as that of Saturday the straining of such a vast weight of wind-filled canvas might start the stepping of the mainmast or snap the topmast.

MR. CROKER FAVORS GRIEL FOR SHERIFF

Carroll and Ridder, of the German-American Union, Confer.

TO HELP TAMMANY.

Maurice Undermyer Under Consideration for Supreme Court Justice.

The Tammany Committee of Seven, appointed at the session of the Executive Committee on Saturday night to confer with other organizations as to the nominations to be presented to the Judiciary and County Conventions, will meet in Tammany Hall at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

It was said last night that overtures for a conference with this committee had been made by Herman Ridder, of the German-American Reform Union, and that the German vote was to be placated by the nomination of William F. Grell, the present Tax Commissioner, for Sheriff. When questioned on these points last night Mr. Croker said:

"I don't know what the committee will do. I have no information that the German-American Reform Union will ask for a conference. I do not know who will be nominated for Sheriff. Mr. Grell is a good man, but I do not know that he will be nominated."

From other sources, however, it was learned that Messrs. Carroll and Ridder had had a conference during the day and that Mr. Ridder had pledged the support of his organization to the Tammany ticket.

It was learned further that Mr. Croker had decided to nominate Mr. Grell for Sheriff at this time to take John B. Sexton out of the Police Board, and that therefore a change would be made in the slate for Sheriff. Only two names were seriously considered—those of Dock Commissioner Charles F. Murphy and the Democratic Club member, William F. Grell. As Mr. Murphy does not want the place the preference will probably be given to Mr. Grell.

Mr. Croker himself prefers Grell because of the latter's great popularity with Germans of every political creed.

Maurice Undermyer, who has been in Europe all summer, returned yesterday, and last evening was in conference with Messrs. Croker and Undermyer. Undermyer was under consideration for one of the Supreme Court Justiceships. Both Undermyers were anxious to obtain the honor last year.

The Tammany Alderman and Assembly Conventions will be held this evening. One of the liveliest fights will be for the nomination of an Alderman to succeed James J. Dunphy in the Ninth District. Dunphy was appointed to the place to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Alderman Siefke, and his election to the Board of Aldermen was brought about through the influence of the Goodwin-Smith faction in the Ninth District.

When Mr. Sheehan was asked yesterday whether Dunphy would be nominated, he smiled grimly and said: "He most certainly will not."

On the other hand, Councilman Goodwin is authority for the statement that no effort will be spared to nominate Dunphy. Mr. Sheehan will probably try to nominate Thomas H. Sullivan, concerning whom he has had a conference with the Democratic Club, and is said to be interested in a talk over the telephone with Mr. Croker.

Mr. Croker's own son told last night what Sheehan had said in reference to Dunphy, asked:

"Who is Dunphy?"

"Who he was told that Dunphy was looking for the nomination for Alderman from the Ninth District he remarked indifferently:

"Oh, well, that is a district fight, and had best be left to the district."

The Tammany Municipal Conventions for the nomination of Justices will be held to-morrow evening, and the county convention on Wednesday evening.

Dayton a Possible Anti-Tammany Candidate for Judge or Sheriff.

Charles W. Dayton bobbed up yesterday as a possible candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court, or for Sheriff, of the anti-Tammany ticket. He has already been named for the former place by the Independent Labor party, and last night his friends were arguing with the Platt Republicans and Citizens' Union leaders and others, who have participated in the City Club conferences, that if George E. Holt were to be endorsed, Dayton should be also.

When it was suggested that Henry W. Taft had been practically selected for Holt's running mate, the Labor folks said they would much prefer former Justice Joseph F. Daly to Taft. Then it was suggested that Daly go on for the Supreme Court Justice and Dayton for Sheriff.

This proposition was the subject of an adjourned conference at the City Club to-night. It is believed that that conference will then agree upon the ticket which, except for the possible changes just indicated, has been forecast in the Journal.

MANY SAVED FROM FIRE BY POLICEMEN.

Brave Bluecoats Guide Frightened Tenants to Places of Safety.

Piney policemen prevented loss of life in the blazing inventory tenement No. 652 Bedford avenue, Williamsburg, yesterday morning at 4 o'clock.

Eight families were driven by fire from the five-story tenement at No. 652 Bedford avenue, Manhattan, yesterday afternoon. Policeman Charles Lieber found Mrs. Oera Dunn and her two children helpless from fright and took them down the fire escape. Mrs. A. Solomon, with her four weeks' old baby, was carried from the top floor hysterical.
