

FIVE MILLION NAMES ON A POLYGAMY PETITION.

Names Obtained by the Journal, When Complete, Will Make a String Reaching from Here to Washington.

Helen Gould One of Four Women Who Have Done Splendid Work in Behalf of the Purity of Homes.

Works Among Policemen, Firemen and Letter Carriers, Getting 2,000 Men to Denounce Roberts.

The Journal's enormous anti-polygamy petition to Congress yesterday passed the 5,000,000 mark. Miss Helen Gould, the representative young American, will be well represented in the Journal's big anti-Roberts petition to be presented to the House at its opening session on December 1.

Through the efforts of Miss Gould and Mrs. George B. Watts, president of the American Female Guardian Society and Home for the Friendless, many signatures of representative men and women of Greater New York yesterday were added to the petition. Miss Gould got a good portion of the 2,000 or more signatures.

In her list were members of the Police, Fire and Post Office departments of the city, along with the names of the members of the oldest families of the metropolis. The clerks, policemen and letter carriers of New York have been doing splendid work to aid Miss Gould in getting signatures for this petition against the avowed law-breaker Roberts.

Among the signers of the petitions sent in by Miss Gould were members of the Van Rensselaer and other prominent Knickerbocker families. Miss Gould is in hearty accord with the great national crusade carried on by the Journal for the last year in the interest of the purity and sanctity of the American home.

Miss Gould's representative American girl has done magnificent work for the cause since she introduced the anti-Roberts resolution referred to in Mrs. Watt's letter, here reproduced.

It was at the meeting of the American Female Guardian Society on October 6 that Miss Gould first announced her intention of joining in the crusade inaugurated a year ago against Roberts, of Utah.

Miss Gould is an officer of the Guardian Society, which has done such great good in befriending the waifs of the city. Her anti-Roberts fight has been aided greatly by four representative American women who have done noble work during the last year in the interests of American womanhood. They are:

Miss Helen Gould, Mrs. George B. Watts, president of the American Female Guardian Society; Mrs. Darius B. James, president of the Presbyterian Women's Board of Home Missions; and Mrs. Josiah Strong, wife of the Rev. Dr. Josiah Strong.

American Female Guardian Society AND HOME FOR THE FRIENDLESS.

29 E. 29th St., and 30 E. 30th St.

ORGANIZED 1834. New York, November 28, 1899.

To the Editor of the New York Journal: It is with great pleasure I send you 2,581 signatures to the petition to Congress to prevent Congressman-elect Brigham H. Roberts from taking his seat and also to pass a law disqualifying any polygamist from ever, hereafter, holding office in the United States.

A few more papers are still out, but fearing that they may not be received in time I send the enclosed, with sincere wishes that the petition may be granted.

Enclosed, also, you will find a copy of the resolutions offered by Miss Helen Gould and passed by the American Female Guardian Society on October 6, when we held our Anti-Roberts meeting.

Yours very sincerely Helen A. Watts Pres. of the A. F. G. Soc. L. & Home for the Friendless

Thanksgiving Feast for Superannuated Prize Fighters. Saluted by Women and Cheered by Many of His Followers.

CORBETT TO PRESIDE. FLOWERS IN PLENTY. Sharkey Resents Invitation as Imputing That He is a "Has Been."

The Sportsman's Fund of America, formed to do for unfortunate pugilists what the Actors' Fund does for members of the theatrical profession, has for its first dinner, November 28, invited a number of prize fighters who are in hard luck, advertising that any defeated, broken-down fighter who has nowhere else to eat will receive a free Thanksgiving dinner to-morrow at the headquarters, No. 1570 Broadway.

James J. Corbett is at the head of the movement, and it is announced that he will preside at one of the tables. John L. Sullivan will carve turkey at the other end of the same board. Thomas J. Sharkey has been asked to attend.

Some of those who received invitations at first did not take them as a compliment. They thought there was an implication that they were thoroughly broken down and hungry. Sharkey, it is said, was especially sensitive and tore up his ticket in a rage.

"Say," he said to his manager, "what do you think I've been invited to a convention of these fellows for? What do you suppose they mean? If it's intended as an insult, I'll go around there and smash things. Who's the man? I'll like to see Fancy Corbett having the nerve to call me one! What grave robber dug him up?"

Mr. Corbett, however, made an explanation that put the thing in another light. He said that although he had charge of the affair, it was not a gathering of "has-beens" at all, but a convention of everyone interested in pugilism who wishes to establish a pension fund to provide for those who are no longer strong enough to stand up in the ring and be punched.

"All the leading pugilists in the country have joined the movement," said he. "It is a grand and noble charity. The public should sympathize with our plans to bury fighters. We are a gathering of the best and noblest gentlemen of the ring, and we hope to bury a large number more before a great while."

Mr. Corbett has been very tactful in his arrangements. All the old-time fighters who are unable to work are invited to accept of the pension fund, and he is present to give their moral endorsement to a plan to benefit them.

The Sportsman's Fund feeds all the hungry pugilists around New York, who used to be of some account, it will need a pretty large kitchen," said a man who knows what he is talking about.

MISS DELAFIELD'S DEBUT. NO FALLS AT MEADOW BROOK.

Introduced to Society at a Reception Given by Mrs. M. L. Delafield. A Chase of Eleven Miles, with Mrs. Ker-nochan and Miss Langhorn Taking Part.

Mrs. Maturin Livingston Delafield gave a large reception yesterday afternoon at her residence, No. 475 Fifth avenue, to introduce her daughter, Miss Harriet Coleman Delafield, to the city.

The debutante was assisted in receiving by Miss Margaretta Beasley, the fiancée of her brother, Edward Delafield, and fifteen of the season's prettiest debutantes. Among those who called to greet Miss Delafield were Mr. and Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick De Presser, Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry and her daughters, J. Coleman Drayton and Miss Drayton.

The feature of yesterday's run of the Meadowbrook Hunt Club was that there were no falls during the entire run of eleven miles. There were just a dozen in the saddle. The start was made from East Wilton, and the bounds ran through the Fredwell and Whitrop farms to the country seat of the late Kinsley Magoun.

From this point the party hunted across the places of J. E. D. Lanier and Thomas Hitecock to Westbury Church. Mrs. James L. Kernochan and Miss Phillips Langhorn were the only women in the chase.

Free Help Weak Men, do not despond, CALTHOS will restore you.

100,000 Special Trial FREE Treatments of the Great French Remedy Have Been Imported. The Von Mohl Company's Wonderful Offer. NO C. O. D. OR DEPOSIT SCHEME.

The Von Mohl Co., of Cincinnati, O., known the country over as the largest importer of standard remedies in the United States, have achieved the most remarkable success ever known in the history of medicine with "Calthos," their marvelous French remedy for lost manhood, the first American medicine to bear of the wonderful discovery soon as it was given the public in France, and at once sent a trusted representative to Paris, who secured the exclusive rights for the preparation in North America.

The past year "Calthos" has become as famous in America as it is throughout Europe. Over one hundred thousand sufferers of lost manhood in all its most terrible forms have been cured, and have written the Von Mohl Co., telling of the joy they experienced in having the functions of perfect manhood restored. Not one of these patients have been or will be made public, because the Von Mohl Company has made it an imperative rule to treat all correspondents in the strictest confidence of their business, and confidentially. Every year letters from patients are destroyed, and among their patrons are many men with national reputations in public and private affairs.

The Von Mohl Company has just imported 100,000 treatments of "Calthos" from Prof. Jules Laborde, the greatest physician in all France, and the great discoverer of this remedy, and now invites all men suffering from Lost Manhood, Spermatorrhea, Varicocele, Small Parts of the Testes, Neuritis in the Nerves of Sexual Organs, to send their names and receive a five days' treatment of "CALTHOS." After using it five days the sufferers will find how light their burden is, how their ambition, and rapid progress toward the buoyant feeling and sensations of younger days.

THIS LIBERAL OFFER IS GENUINE. There is no swindling C. O. D. or Deposit Scheme connected with it. The five days' treatment is sent by sealed mail, wrapped in a safe package, and full and complete instructions accompany the preparation, so that each patient becomes his own doctor and cures himself at home. Cures are effected at all ages from twenty to eighty years. There is no case, except where the stage of epilepsy or insanity has been reached which it will not radically, quickly and permanently cure. Sexual weakness does not cure itself. It grows worse from day to day, until the victim is beyond all hope. Each day aggravates the mental and physical anguish.

Don't delay, but send your name in the full knowledge that the "CALTHOS" department of our business is strictly confidential. THE VON MOHL COMPANY, 672 B. Cincinnati, O. Largest Importers of Standard Remedies in the United States.

JOURNAL CLOSES PC CORE DIVES.

"Moorish Palace" and "Moulin Rouge" Shut Up Shop Abruptly.

The Evening Journal's crusade against the slot machine dives which are contaminating the young in all parts of the city was followed yesterday by a general closing up of many of the most obnoxious. Prominent among the places that closed were the "Moorish Palace," at No. 132 Bowery, and the "Moulin Rouge," at No. 132 and 134 Bowery.

As a result of the Journal's vigorous work Chief Devery yesterday ordered his captains to clear out the fake museums and similar resorts where these slot machine pictures are exhibited. Every precinct captain was ordered to clear out his district of these resorts.

"I regard all these places as suspicious," said Chief Devery, "and want them all closed without delay."

The pictures which have been shown in these dives are for the most part vulgar and improper in their character. The low price of admission—one cent in some places, five cents in others—is a bid for the pennies and nickels of children.

A word to the children and half-grown boys and girls are the principal patrons of these places.

The dives, with their moving pictures full of suggestion, to be found on all the principal thoroughfares. They abound on the Bowery, on Third avenue, on Eighth avenue and on One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, and other streets where good chances abound to entrap the young and the curious.

So far as can be learned, neither the police nor the Society for the Suppression of Vice have made any move to stop these places or prosecute their proprietors. The criminal who is to be taken into custody to expose these dives until it has driven them all out of business.

Police Inspector Walter Thompson recently raided two places in this city where improper moving pictures were exhibited, but few arrests were made. If the police attempt to make a start they might visit the following: No. 132 Bowery, No. 138 Bowery, No. 152 Bowery, No. 174 Bowery, No. 181 Bowery, the "Oriental Palace" at No. 186 Bowery, and "La Tosca" at No. 174 Bowery.

HICKS HEIRS RECOVER DAMAGES FROM "L" ROAD. Judgment for $80,410 Against Manhattan Company, and Order of Restraint from Court of Appeals.

Albany, Nov. 28.—The Court of Appeals has awarded the heirs of Almy T. Hicks a verdict of $80,410 against the Manhattan Railway Company, and Order of Restraint from Court of Appeals.

WOODRUFF PICKED TO DEFEAT ROOT.

Belief in Albany That Timothy L. Will Be McKinley's Running Mate.

Albany, Nov. 28.—Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff will be the Republican nominee for Vice-President if the nomination comes to New York and the Platt organization has the naming of the man," said an enthusiastic partisan of Woodruff to-day. "Platt is for him. Roosevelt is pledged to him, and Odell, Aldridge, Farn and all the other leaders are with him."

It was learned that a party of Woodruff's close friends have made arrangements to go to Washington within a few days. Their plan is to open the Woodruff campaign in the national capital. They mean to boom Woodruff among the men who make national delegates and rule national conventions.

Woodruff's availability will be pointed out, especially his cash and the readiness with which he disburses it for political honors, as made evident by the last two State campaigns.

Senator Platt will, it is said, be adviser-in-chief to the Woodruff boomers in their work for Platt's election. Woodruff is in earnest for Woodruff now, it is claimed.

Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff's stay at the Waldorf-Astoria, it is said, here, recently in his gaining much strength. John Platt's aid it is said he has made a good impression on Mark Hanna, and has Quay's promise of the Pennsylvania delegation. In fact, it is asserted that the old Platt-Quay "combine" in national politics is at work for the Lieutenant-Governor. The case seems to be that the two old political partners, Platt and Quay, are believed to be seeking delegates for Woodruff, chiefly the cause either of the two forces, Edlin Root, who is mentioned as the President's choice if the nomination comes to New York.

JOHN H. HANAN DROPS HIS SUIT FOR DIVORCE. Brooklyn Millionaire, It is Said, Charged His Wife with Lack of Devotion.

Narragansett Pier, Nov. 28.—John H. Hanan, the millionaire, of Brooklyn, who entered suit for divorce last month in Rhode Island Appellate Court for Washington County, has dropped his action and gone to New York. Hanan lived here long enough to acquire a divorce residence in the State.

From an authentic source it was learned this evening that Hanan charged his wife with lack of devotion. In another quarter it was said that the real reason for Hanan dropping the suit was the elaborate preparation made by Mrs. Hanan to fight it. In the $150,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Dutton, of Chicago, against Hanan, she charged him with lack of devotion in the Newport cottage in which Mrs. Edith Briggs Smith Thompson, with her husband of a few days, was living. Mrs. Hanan, it was said, has formidable weapons of defense.

PASTEUR CURE PROVES, IN THIS CASE, USELESS. Pennsylvania Man Bitten by a Mad Dog Dies After Receiving Treatment in New York.

West Chester, Pa., Nov. 28.—After suffering awful agony for two days, Joseph Gibbs, of Willowdale, near here, died in the Chester County Home for Hydrophobia patients. His wife is afflicted with the same disease at her home.

POSITIVE FACTS FOR WOMEN.

All the world knows of the wonderful cures which have been made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, yet some women do not realize that that is claimed for it is absolutely true.

If all suffering women could be made to believe that Mrs. Pinkham can do all she says she can, their suffering would be at an end, for they would at once profit by her advice and be cured.

To all doubters Mrs. Pinkham can furnish the most positive and convincing proof of these facts.

First—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of any remedy for female ills ever known in this country. Second—Mrs. Pinkham has on file millions of letters from women who have been restored to health by the use of her Compound, and all that she claims can be verified by an examination of her records. Third—All letters addressed to her at Lynn, Mass., are received, opened, read, and answered by women only. This is a sacred confidence never violated. No testimonial letter is ever published without the writer's full and free consent in writing. These are positive facts—not mere statements.

Three Letters from One Woman, Showing how She Sought Mrs. Pinkham's Aid, and was Cured of Suppression of the Menstrues, and Inflammation of the Ovaries.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have been in bed a year. Doctors say I have female weakness. I have a bad discharge and much soreness across my ovaries, bearing-down pains when passing urine, have not menstruated for a year. Doctors say the menses will never appear again. Hope to hear from you."—Mrs. J. F. BROWN, Holton, Kans., April 1, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I received your letter. I have taken one bottle and a half of your Vegetable Compound, and use two packages of your Wash, and feel stronger and better. I can walk a few steps, but could not before taking your Compound. I still have the discharge and am sore across the ovaries, but not so bad. Every one thinks I look better, since taking your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. J. F. BROWN, Holton, Kans., Aug. 13, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I think it is my duty to let you know the good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound has done me. After I took three bottles menses appeared, and I began to feel stronger and all my pain was gone. Yours is the only medicine that ever helped me." I am able now to work around the house, something I did not expect to do again. I am still taking your medicine and have recommended it to others."—Mrs. J. F. BROWN, Holton, Kans., Jan. 25, 1899.

Three More Letters from One Woman, Relating how She was Cured of Irregular Menstruation, Leucorrhœa and Backache.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I am troubled with irregular menstruation, and have begun the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Would like your advice."—CORA L. PAYTON, May, 19, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I have a bad discharge and write to ask if I had better not use your Sanative Wash also? Your medicine is helping me."—CORA L. PAYTON, Ogontz, Pa., July 1, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I write to tell you of the benefit I have received from the use of your remedies. Before using them I was feeling very bad. I used to go to the hospital, but it did me no good. Your remedies have done wonders for me."—CORA L. PAYTON, Ogontz, Pa. Feb. 25, 1899.
