

HUNDREDS OF GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH AT NEUVE CHAPELLE, FRANCE, ARRIVE IN ENGLAND.
(Photo © by American Press Assn.)

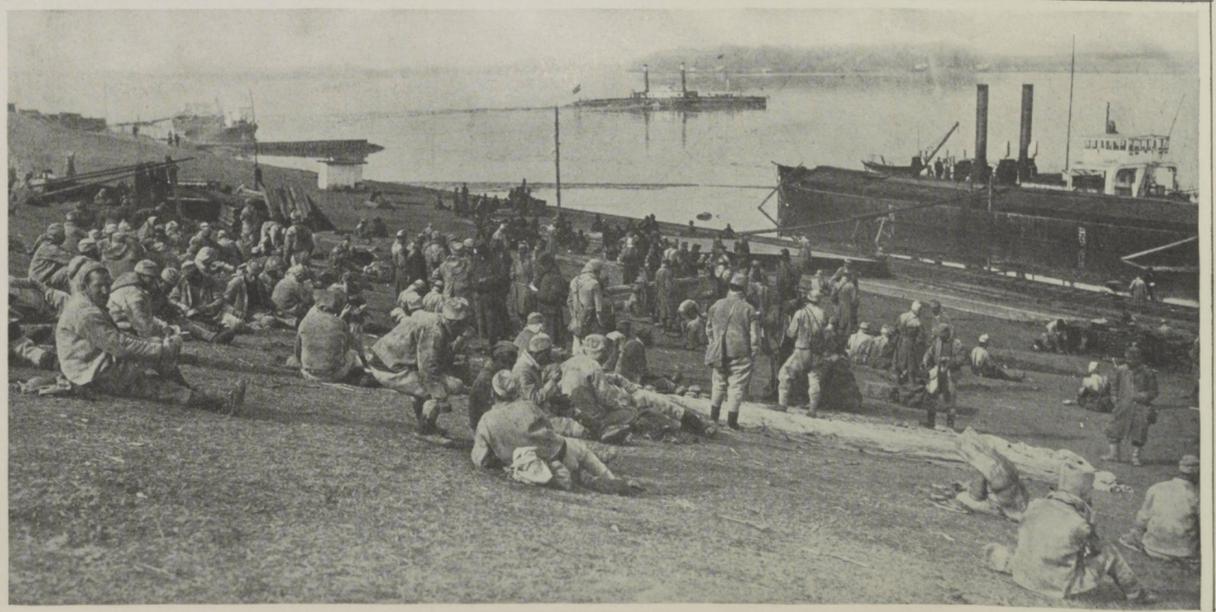

Church at Suippes, France, Whose Spire Served as a "Point" for German Shells Until the French Marked it with Trees So the Germans Were Unable to Distinguish It in the Forest Setting.

Permanently Disabled British Soldiers Welcomed as Fellow-Pupils by the Little Cripples of the Heritage School of Arts, Sussex, England, Where the Veterans Are to Learn a Trade and Start Life Over Again.
(Photos © by International News Service.)

Dr. Ryan, Head of the American Red Cross Hospital at Belgrade, Serbia, Talking With Sir Thomas Lipton

AUSTRIANS, CAPTURED BY THE SERBIANS, HAVING THEIR MID-DAY MEAL AT PHROVNA, A SERBIAN PORT ON THE DANUBE.
(Photo © by American Press Assn.)