

NEWEST RECRUITS TO THE OFFICERS' RESERVE CORPS DRILLING ON GOVERNORS ISLAND, USING WOODEN DUMMY GUNS IN THE FIRST STAGE OF THEIR INSTRUCTION.

The Skyline of Lower Manhattan Can Be Seen in the Background.
(Times Photo Service.)

OFFICERS' RESERVE CORPS RECRUITS, WHO HAVE NEARLY COMPLETED THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION PRELIMINARY TO EXAMINATION, NOW DRILLING WITH ARMY RIFLES.
(Times Photo Service.)

MAJOR GENERAL J. FRANKLIN BELL,
New Commander of the Department of the East, Succeeding Major General Wood.
(Photo © by Cincinnati, from Underwood & Underwood.)

GERMAN SAILORS FROM THE PRINZ EITEL FRIEDRICH AND THE KRON-PRINZ WILHELM LEAVING PHILADELPHIA, WHERE THEIR SHIPS ARE INTERNED, FOR FORTS OGLETHORPE AND McPHERSON, GEORGIA.
(Photo © Int. Film Service.)

ALL CIVILIANS WITH PACKAGES OF ANY KIND ARE PROMPTLY ESCORTED BY GUARDSMEN AWAY FROM THE VICINITY OF THE 71ST REGIMENT ARMORY.
(Times Photo Service.)

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, WHO HAVE ORGANIZED A MILITARY UNIT, MARCHING TO THEIR DRILL FIELD, WHERE THEY RECEIVE INSTRUCTION DAILY FROM 2:30 TO 4:30 P. M.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)