

Get Away From The City This Summer

SOMEWHERE, away from the dust and noise of the city, is the place you want to live this Summer. On the shore of a mountain lake, at the seashore, or near a brook under the trees. And here is the little thatched cottage to put up on that spot. Built by the Bossert logical, economical method, all the bother and fuss of building is done for you, and you buy the finished product as you do in every other line of manufacture.

House contains 15 x 15 living room, two bedrooms, kitchen and bath. It can be un-assembled and put up again any number of times without deterioration, and yet is stronger than any other type of frame building. Vital economies effected by the Bossert Method of buying materials and manufacturing enable us to deliver this house for
