

"SISTERS"—
BY EDWIN H.
BLASHFIELD, N. A.
Represented Here by Female
Heads Are the Three Republics,
America, in Her Liberty Cap and
Laurel Wreath; France, in a Helmet,
Surmounted by the Gallic Cock; and Russia, Wearing a Pearl Tiara.
The Painting Has Just Been Finished by Mr.
Blashfield for the Exhibition and Sale by the American Artists' Committee of One Hundred for the Benefit of the Fraternite des Artistes, at the Galleries of the American Art Association, Beginning This Week.
(Photo by Peter A. Juley.)

MRS. ANTHONY DREXEL, JR.,
Formerly Miss Marjorie Gould, at the Tea and Motion Picture Show Given by Her Mother, Mrs. George J. Gould, at Georgian Court for the Benefit of the American Red Cross.

(Photo by Kadel & Herbert.)

EDITH AND ANTHONY DREXEL,
Children of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., Who Assisted in Serving at the Red Cross
Tea Given by Mrs. George
J. Gould.

(Photo by Kadel & Herbert.)

THE WARRIORS' DANCE, A SCENE FROM THE GREEK GAMES GIVEN YESTERDAY AT BARNARD COLLEGE BY THE BARNARD CLASSES
OF 1919 AND 1920.
(Photo by Ira L. Hill Studio.)

MRS. CORNELIUS VANDERBILT,
WIFE OF COL. VANDERBILT, RETURNING TO HER HOME ON FIFTH AVENUE
AFTER EASTER SERVICES.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

MRS. SAMUEL NEILSON HINCKLEY,
FORMERLY MISS CATHERINE HAM-
ERSLY, ON FIFTH AVENUE
AT EASTER.
(Photo © by International Film Service.)

MR. AND
MRS. FINLEY
J. SHEPARD,
FORMERLY MISS
HELEN GOULD, AN ADOPTED DAUGHTER,
AND MISS HELEN GOULD,
A DAUGHTER OF FRANK J.
GOULD, IN THE EASTER
THROUGH ON FIFTH AVENUE.
(Photo by Kadel & Herbert.)