

CROWD IN FRONT OF THE BILLY SUNDAY TABERNACLE, BROADWAY AND 168TH STREET, ON LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON, WHEN THE SERIES OF REVIVAL MEETINGS, TO LAST THREE MONTHS, BEGAN.
(Photo © by International Film Service.)

THE COUNTESS DE BOURBON, NINE YEARS OLD, YOUNGEST OF FRENCH RED CROSS NURSES, WHO HAS REMAINED IN HER NATIVE TOWN CLOSE BEHIND THE FRENCH LINES TO ASSIST IN CARING FOR THE WOUNDED.
(Photo © by International Film Service.)

BILLY SUNDAY IN ACTION IN HIS NEW YORK TABERNACLE.
(Times Photo Service.)

AN IDYL BEHIND THE FRENCH LINES.
(Photo © by International Film Service.)

PRESIDENT MENOCA OF CUBA, WHICH DECLARED WAR WITH GERMANY IN SUPPORT OF THE UNITED STATES, AND HIS MILITARY STAFF AND ADVISERS. Seated, Left to Right, are: Major Pedro Sardinias, Lieut. Col. Leander dela Torriente, General Jose Marti, President Menocal, Colonel Alberto Heirera, Captain Eduard Gonzales del Real, and Major Antonio Tabel.

From a New Photograph Which Reached This City a Week Ago from Havana
(Photo © by Brown & Dawson.)

CROWD STANDS UNCOVERED IN FRONT OF THE NAVAL RECRUITING STATION NEAR THE BILLY SUNDAY TABERNACLE WHILE CLAIRE ROCHESTER, OPERA SINGER, LEADS IN THE SINGING OF "THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER."
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

MISS VERA CRAVATH, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Cravath, in the Easter Throng on Fifth Avenue with James S. Larkin, to Whom Her Engagement was Recently Announced.
(Photo © by American Press Assn.)