

THE POPULACE AND SOLDIERS OF TASHKENT, ASIATIC RUSSIA, CAPITAL OF RUSSIAN TURKESTAN, CELEBRATING THE OVERTHROW OF THE RUSSIAN AUTOCRACY.
Inscriptions on Some of the Banners Carried in the Parade and Shown in the Background, Translated, Read: "Rejoice, Children, We Will Be Educated in Free Schools by Free Teachers"; "Long Live Brotherhood and Equality"; "Long Live Democratic Federated Republic."

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

PLATTSBURG STUDENT OFFICERS OF NEW YORK CITY COMPANY NO. 5 PLAYING LEAP FROG IN ADDITION TO A HARD DAY'S TRAINING IN IMAGINARY BAYONET CHARGES FROM TRENCHES.

(© American Press Assn.)

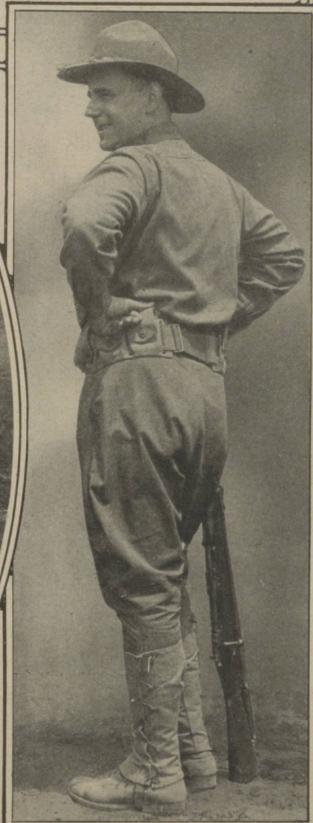

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

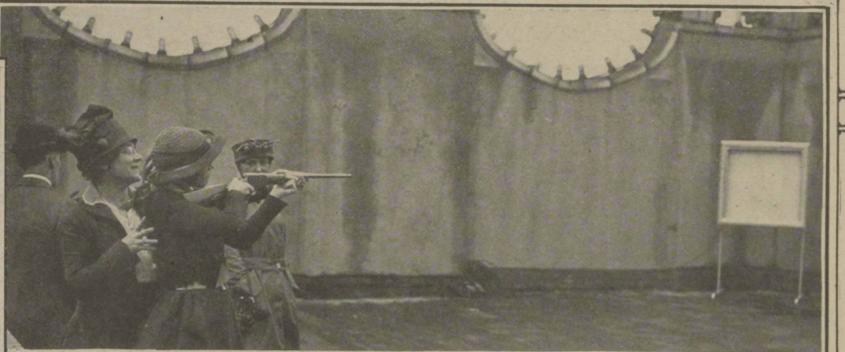

SENATOR GUGLIELMO MARCONI, Inventor of Wireless Telegraphy and a Member of the Italian War Mission, Alighting at the Joseph Leiter Home, Washington, Where the Mission Will Stay While in This Country.

STUDENTS OF LAFAYETTE COLLEGE, EASTON, PENN., DRILLING ON THE CAMPUS UNDER LEUTENANT E. O. FITCH, JR., U. S. N., NINETY PER CENT. OF THE STUDENT BODY VOLUNTARILY TAKING UP MILITARY TRAINING ON THE DECLARATION OF WAR.

BENNETT CLARK, Son of Speaker Champ Clark of the House of Representatives, a Student Officer at Fort Myer, Va. Mr. Clark Recently Received an Ovation When He Entered the National Capitol in Khaki Uniform.
(© International Film Service.)

MRS. JANE HOUGHTON, AN INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN RIFLE SHOT, TEACHING NEW YORK GIRLS MARKSMANSHIP AND THE HANDLING OF FIRE ARMS ON THE ROOF OF THE VANDERBILT HOTEL.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE BODY OF THE LATE GEORGE W. GUTHRIE, UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR TO JAPAN, IS TRANSFERRED FROM THE JAPANESE CRUISER AZUMA, WHICH CONVEYED IT FROM JAPAN, TO AN AMERICAN TENDER FOR LANDING AT SAN FRANCISCO.
(International Film Service.)