

THE CORPS OF CADETS OF THE VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE, LEXINGTON, VIRGINIA, DRILLING ON THE INSTITUTE GROUNDS, IN SERVICE UNIFORM.

Thirty-five of This Year's Class Were Graduated on May 5, Having Been Requisitioned as Officers in the Army, Navy, and Marines, to Which Branches of the Service They Were Admitted on Physical Examinations Only. The Remaining Members of the Class, Not Then Being of Age, Will Be Graduated on June 15. (Photos by Holstinger's Studio.)

FORMER PRESIDENT WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT VISITING HIS YOUNGER SON, "CHARLEY" TAFT, NOW A PRIVATE IN ARTILLERY, AT FORT MYER, VA.

(© International Film Service.)

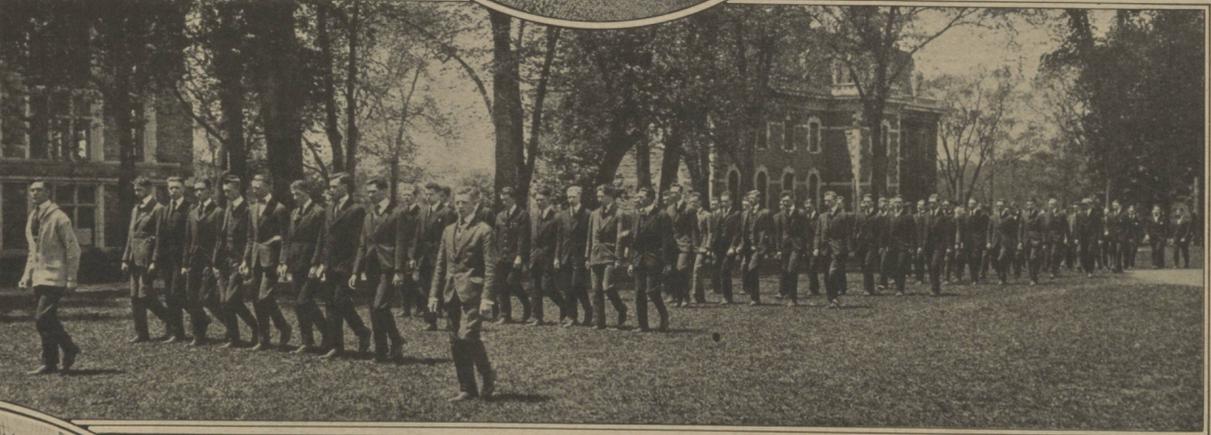

The Student Battalion of Washington and Lee University, Which Was Founded by Washington and of Which General R. E. Lee Was President from the Close of the Civil War Until His Death, Drilling on the University Campus Under Officers of the Virginia Military Institute, Whose Grounds Adjoin Those of the University.

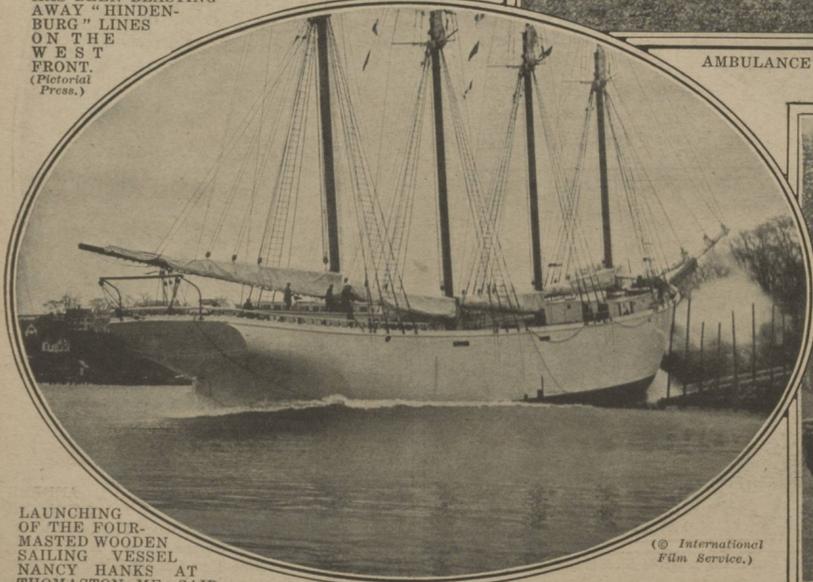

The Tented Home of 150 Rookies from All Parts of the Country Who Have Gone to the Virginia Military Institute to be Trained for Three Months by Officers of the Institute, These to be Followed by Other Groups of 150 Men Each at the Expiration of the Successive Periods.

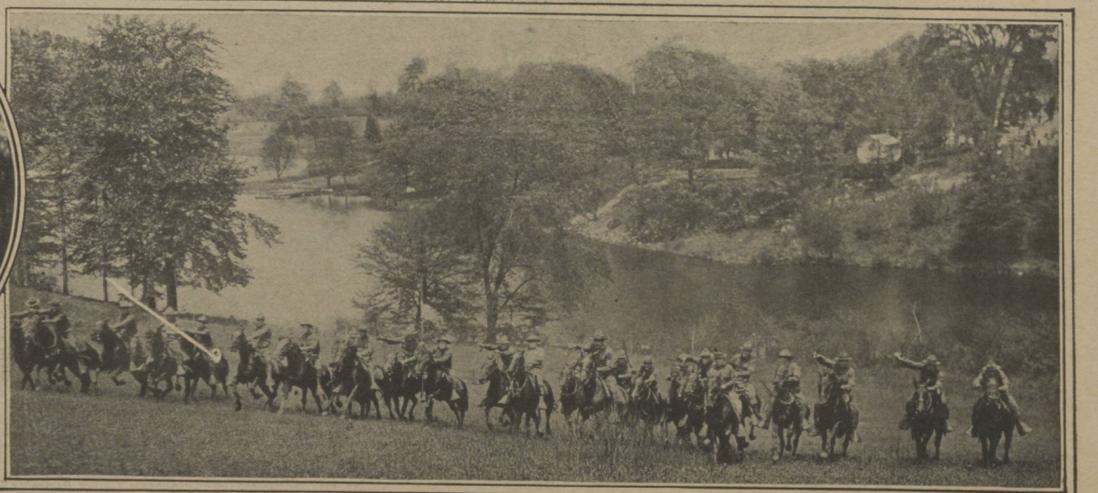

FRENCH SOLDIER DEMONSTRATING THE SIZE OF THE FAMOUS FRENCH "400," WHICH HAS BEEN BLASTING AWAY "HINDENBURG" LINES ON THE WEST FRONT. (Pictorial Press.)

AMBULANCE UNIT OF FORDHAM UNIVERSITY, SOON TO SEE SERVICE IN FRANCE, DRILLING ON THE UNIVERSITY GROUNDS A FEW DAYS BEFORE SAILING. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

LAUNCHING OF THE FOUR-MASTED WOODEN SAILING VESSEL NANCY HANKS AT THOMASTON, ME., SAID TO BE AMONG THE FIRST OF A LARGE WOODEN FLEET NOW BEING BUILT IN MAINE SHIPYARDS. (© International Film Service.)

TROOP F, FIRST CAVALRY, NEW YORK NATIONAL GUARD, CHARGING UP HILL IN WAR GAMES ON STATEN ISLAND. (© International Film Service.)